A NEW SEASON...

We wish you a wonderful, blessed and joyful season of autumn! Where the vibrance of summer brings glory to God for the harvest in the colours yellow, brown, gold and purple. As the season bows down in awe to glorify God, let us glorify Him in the autumn of the prophetic calendar, and prepare for the dark nights of winter that follow...

UPDATE FROM OUR FOUNDER

Message from Spiro Sueref, founder of Jesus4UsAll.com

Welcome to our Autumn 2025 issue! Due to our personal workloads, among other things, we skipped our summer issue, but have included several articles and testimonies into this issue. We have for the first time, thank God, included our Mission & Causes, which is the reason why Jesus4UsAll.com is here. Yet, somehow, this topic was always put off for one reason or another, until now. So, thanks to our volunteer Marilyn, we now have our Mission & Causes presented for the first time. As we write this, we are racing to catch up with the prophetic unfolding of events in our time. The most significant being, that, there is almost a frenzy-like attitude, a sense of great urgency, for Israel to begin construction of its Third Temple. For the first time in 2000 years, a red heifer was slaughtered and burnt in Israel. They said it was a practice run, but it may be the real thing, since its ashes have been distributed among the people. These ashes are used to purify things and people, and in this case, there is the possibility that the ashes are being used to purify the tools and equipment that will be used to build the Third Temple in Jerusalem. Israel's ongoing conflict and invasion of Gaza seems to be part of a project that will bring about peace between Israel and some of the Arab nations. We write about this in this magazine in "On Our Watch".

In the last week or so, I've lost the use of my 23-year-old car. I bought it five years ago for just £500. It reminds me of a previous time in 2019, when I had to scrap my car because of an oil leak in the engine. I prayed, and the Lord came through. Back then, I went from no car to two cheap runarounds! And I sense, in some way, the Lord is doing something even now. He has put it on my heart to start planning for a mobile mission. Where me and my family can travel around, from place to place, proclaiming the Good News, healing the sick, liberating the captives, and empowering God's people to be effective members of their parishes and in the body of Christ. So please pray about this for us; and let me know if you would like us to consider coming to you for an event, at your parish, or group. We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who decided to subscribe to our community, and to give a monthly contribution to help cover our costs. I would also like to thank those who have given one-off donations. We keep you all in our daily prayers, so that God will richly reward you for your kindness. Every testimony we get through those who come to us, to receive a healing or blessing, has been made possible firstly by God who performs the miracle, but secondly from all of you who help us cover our financial commitments. We really do appreciate this and thank you for it. Please pass this magazine on to your families, friends and parishes.

"Christian Prayer: An Introduction"

The course is designed to guide individuals through the rich and transformative practice of prayer in the Christian tradition. This course explores the fundamental aspects of prayer, including its purpose, types, and the role it plays in deepening one's relationship with God. Through practical insights and biblical teachings, learners will discover how prayer serves as both a personal and communal experience, offering spiritual growth and connection with the divine. Whether you're new to prayer or seeking to enhance your practice, this course provides a solid foundation to help you embrace prayer as a vital part of your Christian walk.

Who This Course Is For: This course is perfect for individuals at any stage of their spiritual journey—whether you're new to Christianity or simply seeking to deepen your understanding and practice of prayer. It is designed for those who want to develop a more intimate and meaningful relationship with God through prayer, as well as anyone interested in exploring the core aspects of Christian spirituality.

"Foundations of Catholic Faith"

The Catholic Church, rooted in 2,000 years of tradition, scripture, and sacred teachings, presents its foundational principles through a harmonious integration of Sacred Scripture, Sacred Tradition, and the Magisterium (the Church's teaching authority). These foundational teachings guide the faith and morals of over a billion Catholics worldwide. Below is an outline of the primary pillars that shape Catholic doctrine.

What will you learn?

PSALM 91 GOD'S PROTECTION

He that dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God; in Him will I trust.

Surely He shall save you from the snare of the fowler, and from the devastating pestilence.
He shall cover you with His feathers,
and under His wings shall you trust;
His Truth shall be your shield and buckler.

You shall not be afraid of the terror of the night; nor of the arrow that flies by day;

Nor for the pestilence that walks in darkness; nor for the destruction that wastes at midday.

A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand;
but it shall not come near you.

Only with your eyes shall you behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because you have made The Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, your habitation.

There shall no evil befall you, neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.

For He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you up in their palms, lest you dash your foot against a stone.

You shall tread upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the serpent shall you trample under foot.

Because he has set his love upon
Me, therefore will I rescue him;

I will set him on high, because he has known My Name.

He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and show him salvation.

What do you think of the front and back covers?

Did you notice that our covers were created using AI? It was an experiment. Did you recognise the Scripture the front cover represents? The editorial team was curious as to what AI could do. Do you like it? It took a few attempts and 'negotiation' to arrive at completing the brief. Were we successful art directors? Did AI achieve the results we wanted? Our view is, it was fun, educational, and that AI, though limited in colourways, learns fast!

AN ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS (via St Margaret-Mary Alacoque)
I give myself and consecrate to the Sacred Heart of our Lord Jesus Christ my person and my life, my actions, pains and sufferings, so that I may be unwilling to make use of any part of my being other than to honour, love, and glorify the Sacred Heart. This is my unchanging purpose, namely, to be all His, and to do all things for the love of Him, at the same time renouncing with all my heart whatever is displeasing to Him. I, therefore, take You, O Sacred Heart, to be the only object of my love, the guardian of my life, my assurance of salvation, the remedy of my weakness and inconstancy, the atonement for all the faults of my life, and my sure refuge at the hour of death. Be then, O Heart of goodness, my justification before God the Father, and turn away from me the strokes of His righteous anger. O Heart of love, I put all my confidence in You, for I fear everything from my own wickedness and frailty but I hope for all things from Your goodness and bounty. Remove from me all that can displease You or resist Your holy will; let Your pure love imprint Your image so deeply upon my heart that I shall never be able to forget You or to be separated from You. May I obtain from all Your loving kindness the grace of having my name written in Your Heart, for in You, I desire to place all my happiness and glory, living and dying in bondage to You. Amen.

FOCUS ON OUR VOLUNTEERS

As told by Xavier Frances Maloba. Our volunteer from Kenya is a journalist and Canva expert – and helps with the Jesus4UsAll.com magazine and with Intercessory prayer

Why did I join this mission?

I became a Volunteer in Jesus4UsAll.com because I saw how much the world needs hope, healing and love. The past year has been one of my hardest. I've battled loneliness, uncertainty, and loss that left my soul weary. In those moments of silence and tears, I discovered the quiet power of prayer. It became my anchor when everything else was shaken. Prayer is more than words – it's a connection to God that brings light into the darkest places. I've witnessed broken spirits lifted, burdens eased, and miracles unfold through prayer. Volunteering with Jesus4UsAll.com allows me to intercede for others, reminding them that they are not alone. It fills my heart with purpose and peace, knowing I'm helping carry others' struggles to God.

"Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ." – Galatians 6:2. Through prayer, I choose compassion, faith and love – one soul at a time. I chose this ministry because I was drawn to its strong sense of community and its focus on deepening the spiritual life through prayer and service. From the beginning, I felt welcomed and encouraged to grow not only in my faith, but also in how I live it out. What motivated me most was seeing how the group's mission extends beyond prayer to making a positive impact in the wider community. This inspired me to volunteer my time and talents for the magazine, so I could actively contribute to the group's cause and help bring hope and support to others through our shared faith and service. I have also tasted God's deliverance through Spiro – early this year, when my soul felt lost and heavy, and only the love of my wife and children kept me standing. I faced deep trials – unemployment, lack, and shadows of fear – with no one else to turn to within my relatives but God. Through guided prayer with Spiro, God met me in the storm. Though my outward circumstances are still shifting, within me, God has brought peace. The chains of fear and despair are broken. His presence has become my refuge, my strength, and my calm. This peace is my deliverance – a holy assurance that my worth and future are safe in His hands. I now walk in freedom, trusting His provision will come, and already living in the victory of faith. I'm just so grateful for all the team support and encouragement.

PRAYER BY ST MICHAEL ON HIS FEAST DAY, 29 SEPTEMBER 2011

"Each prayer said [below] casts 50,000 demons into damnation. It is a great grace; pray it as often as you can! This is God's great gift to you through me, on the occasion of my feast. You can make very great deliverances for your countries through it. The powers of darkness tremble before this prayer, for they must disappear forever. This prayer can deliver your country, and many other countries around the world!" says St Michael the Archangel.

In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen. Holy Trinity, one God, I humbly beseech you, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St Michael the Archangel, all the angels and saints, to grant us the great grace to defeat the forces of darkness in Hungary, Poland, [name your nation] and throughout the world, for the merits of the Way of the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, for the shedding of His precious Blood, for His Holy Wounds, for His Passion on the Cross, and for all the sufferings which Our Lord and Saviour endured during His Passion and throughout His life on earth for us. We beseech Thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, send Thy holy angels to cast down the forces of evil to hell, to damnation, so that the reign of God may come in Hungary, Poland, [your nation] and throughout the world, and the grace of God may flow into every heart, so that through it, Hungary, Poland, [your nation] and all countries may be filled with Thy peace. Our Lady and Queen, we beseech Thee from the bottom of our hearts to send Thy holy angels to cast down to hell, to eternal damnation, all the evil souls who must perish. St Michael the Archangel, Prince and commander of the heavenly host, the Lord has sent You to accomplish this great work, so that the grace of the Lord may be with us forever. Lead Thy heavenly host, so that the powers of darkness may be permanently consigned to hell, damnation. Unite all your forces to defeat Lucifer and his fallen angels, who have rebelled against God's will and who are now plotting the destruction of souls. Be victorious, for you have power and authority. Ask God for the grace of His Peace and Love for us, so that we may always follow Our Lord to the Kingdom of God. Amen.

REMEMBERING ST ANTHONY OF PADUA

FEAST DAY-13 JUNE

The Catholic Church attributes many miracles to the 13-century saint, one of which proved to a heretic Jesus' Real Presence in the Eucharist.

St Anthony fought and taught against heresies, including those held by the Cathars and Albigensians, who denied Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist. Toulouse, France was the central point of this heresy, and St Anthony, "Hammer of the Heretics", participated in multiple public debates there.

During one debate, a farmer/merchant named Bononillo, challenged St Anthony's belief in the Eucharistic presence.

He said, "If you can make my mule bow down before what you call the Body of Christ, I will believe."

St Anthony tried to convince him in other ways, but in the end could see no option other than to accept the challenge. Bononillo decided to then starve his mule for three days.

On the third day, after spending time in retreat, fasting and praying, St Anthony went to Toulouse and celebrated Holy Mass in the main square. After Mass, Bononillo went before St Anthony, and offered his mule food, while Anthony carried a consecrated host.

St Anthony elevated the Eucharist and shouted in a loud, confident voice: "Creature, Mule, in the Name of the Lord Our God, I command you to come here and adore your Creator!"

St Anthony of Padua is not only the saint who finds lost things, he is a Doctor of the Church, a formidable intellectual and an effective preacher, as well as a humble and holy soul. Such was St Anthony's love for Jesus, the Incarnate Word would appear to him as a radiant Divine Infant in his arms.

Rather than taking Bononillo's feed, the starved mule "reared up" on his hind legs, as if someone had pulled him by a bridle; spun around, and ran towards St Anthony, dropping to his forelegs, hind legs still extended; and put his head down to the ground - in a "posture of adoration" before the Eucharist which St Anthony continued to hold elevated.

Stunned by what had just occurred, Bononillo also bowed down and knelt before the Eucharist. He begged St Anthony for forgiveness, and many other heretics converted that day.

To commemorate his newfound faith, Bononillo donated money to have a new Catholic Church built. On the cornerstone, he had engraved a picture of St Anthony holding the Eucharist aloft and the donkey, "kneeling on his forepaws" in adoration of the Body of Christ.

This miracle performed by St Anthony of Padua is great proof of the REAL PRESENCE OF OUR LORD IN THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AND HOLY EUCHARIST. A miracle we witness in every Holy Sacrifice of Mass, and in all tabernacles all over the world. We are so blessed because Our Lord, His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, is truly in the consecrated Host. Let us, like St Anthony, worship and glorify Our Lord in the Most Holy Sacrament in the altar as often as possible.

To see more celebrated images of this Eucharistic miracle, see <https://imaginemdei.blogspot.com/2020/06/the-miracle-of-mule-corpus-christi.html>

DEDICATION TO THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD

The devotion to the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

The Dedication: "A key to the Lord hearing our Prayers – a must in today's world" by Spiro Sueref

Introduction to this issue's theme - The Dedication & Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Since the 4 February 2001, when I had a profound mystical experience that changed my life, the Lord has, from time to time, spoken to me in an audible, and, I suppose, an inner-locution, way. His word begins in my heart, and then rises up like a banner into my conscious mind; usually, they are simple words or sentences, but they can be more. The Lord established a pattern to give me special words at the end of the year in order to prepare me for the year to come. They have been directional, and have helped me enormously, steering me in the right direction; and they have been, up until 2019, personal. Something I had kept to myself but since then, His words to me have not only come earlier, but also have the sense that they should be shared. For example, last year, the Lord gave me the words, "Life before Creation", and "The Galilean Wedding", and for those of you who know me, you have heard me unwrap and expand these words into inspiring talks. The word I've been given this year, is simply "The Dedication". This is not a new word for me, as I've had it before, but in a different way. This time it seems to be pressing on me with a sense of urgency, since it has connected with it something that the Lord wants me to do for my own benefit, and, I believe, for yours. That's why this article is here...

When in 2001, I asked the Lord when should I get married, seeking a date, he led me to the scripture 2 Chronicles 7, and that, as you will see, is the story of King Solomon dedicating his temple to God. Since I was asking for a date for my wedding, I was amazed to find that the place that I had cut open the bible, was not only about the Dedication, but it also gave me the date of the 16th of the seventh month. Without knowing it then, I came to know that this date was in fact the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel: 16 July.

Seven years later, I met the woman who would become my wife for the first time. On the feast of the Holy Family, we were engaged, and on the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel we were married, having completed a 54-day rosary novena leading up to the wedding day, which included the enrolment, and consecration of our marriage to Our Lady of Mount Carmel during the ceremony.

So we are not new to this devotion, and we have seen many miracles through our devotion to our Heavenly Mother and Our Lord, and through what we now call our 'perpetual 54-day rosary novena'. And we hope to continue to dedicate ourselves and our family to Our Lady of Mount Carmel every year as we move forward into our God-given future.

This is why I am reaching out to you all, to encourage you to dedicate yourselves and your families to God through the Mother of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Our Lady of Mount Carmel. This article brings together many threads woven together to help you join us this year in enrolling in the Brown Scapular; to become Living Temples of God for the glory of God.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel
Feast day: 16 July

Be Living Temples of God through Our Lady of Mount Carmel

A brief historical background

1. The Feast of Tabernacles: God Dwells Among His People

Each year, the people of God celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles — Sukkot (usually celebrated immediately after Yom Kippur, around September/October) — a holy remembrance that God Himself chooses to dwell with His people. It is a feast when Jews live in temporary booths to recall how the Lord led the Israelites through the wilderness, and made His holy presence felt amid a wandering nation. “You shall live in booths for seven days... that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt” (Leviticus 23:42-43). More than a ritual remembrance, this feast announces a profound truth — that God chooses to dwell with mankind. The wilderness, the tent, the Holy of Holies (the Temple of Moses) became a beacon of their belonging to God, a holy reminder that the Almighty chooses to make His home with His people.

King Solomon builds a Temple in Jerusalem and dedicates it to God. After the king prayed, fire came down from Heaven and the glory of the Lord filled the place, 2 Chronicles 7

God Dwells among His People, leading them out of Egypt and into the Promised Land, Exodus 25:8

2. Solomon's Temple: A Promise that Endures

Centuries later, when King Solomon dedicated the holy Temple in Jerusalem, the glory of the Lord descended upon it. The Scriptures recount this sacred scene: “When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the temple. And the priests could not enter the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lord's house. When all the people of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of the Lord upon the temple, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement and worshiped, and gave thanks to the Lord, saying, ‘For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever’” (2 Chronicles 7:1-3). Here we witness a moment where the glory of the Almighty so completely fills the holy space that even the priests cannot stand within it. It is a reminder of the pure and holy nature of spaces dedicated to God, and of the reverence required of those called to stand within them.

After this sacred scene, the Lord appeared to Solomon that night and promised: “I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice... Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayer that is made in this place” (2 Chronicles 7:12,15). This promise made by God applies to every holy space and every heart that chooses to be a living temple for the glory of God.

3. Elijah and Our Lady of Mount Carmel: The Holy Flame

On the heights of Mount Carmel (in northern Israel; its western slopes descend into the Mediterranean sea) the Prophet Elijah called down the holy flame upon an altar dedicated to the Lord. The flame consumed the sacrifice, exposed the idols of Baal, and called God's people back to obedience. "Hear me, O Lord, that this people may know that you are the Lord God, and that you have turned their hearts back" (1 Kings 18:37). Today, Our Lady of Mount Carmel reminds us of this holy heritage. The mountain becomes a symbol — a place where prayer meets obedience, where the holy flame burns away idolatry and makes space for the glory of the Almighty. Our Lady, the living Tabernacle of the New Covenant, reminds every believer that holy spaces must be set apart for God alone.

The prophet Elijah calls down holy fire on Mount Carmel, 1 Kings 18:37

4. Pentecost: The Holy Spirit Fire Comes Down Upon the Apostles and Our Lady

The story finds its fulfillment at Pentecost. Here, the disciples, apostles, and Our Lady were gathered in prayer when flames descended from Heaven upon each head: "When the day of Pentecost came, they were all gathered together in one place. Suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rushing of a wind, and tongues of fire appeared and rested upon each one of them. All were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak as the Holy Spirit gave them utterance" (Acts 2:1-4). This moment confirms the reality of God's indwelling within humanity; within the human heart.

The fire of the Holy Spirit falls on Mary and the apostles at Pentecost, Acts 2. God comes to dwell in us, in our hearts

5. YOU Are a Living Temple of God

St Paul reminds the Church of a revolutionary truth: "Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you?" (1 Corinthians 6:19). In a world that treats the person as disposable and defiles holy places, this truth shines forth like a beacon of light. You are called to be holy. You are called to be a holy temple for the glory of God. The holy places of old — the tent, the temple, the altar upon the holy mountain — all point to this reality: We are all called to bear the holy presence of God within us. This calling comes to all believers and we are all encouraged to experience our own personal pentecost.

6. The Brown Scapular: A sign of Belonging to the Family of God and Dedication to the Lord

The heritage of Our Lady of Mount Carmel is one of closeness to God, rooted in the sacred tradition of the Prophet Elijah, lived by hermits seeking intimacy with the Divine, and made accessible to all through the gift of the Brown Scapular — a sign of belonging, prayer, and the grace to become a holy tabernacle of God. The scapular is more than a piece of brown cloth (based on the monastic garment worn by Carmelites) — it is a sign of obedience and dedication. To wear the Scapular is to say: "I am dedicated to my Lord Jesus Christ. I am wrapped in the mantle of His mother, Our Heavenly Mother. I am called to bear witness to Jesus Christ, to follow the commandments of God and to be a living temple, where the presence of Almighty God can be felt and heard through me." Those who are enrolled in the Brown Scapular are embraced by the heritage of the Carmelite Family. They become sons and daughters of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, called to live holy lives rooted in prayer, obedience and belonging.

We are all called to become a holy Tabernacle of God

A brief history of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

The feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, celebrated on 16 July, was first instituted in the late 14th century in commemoration of the approval of the rule of the Carmelite Order a hundred years earlier. According to legend, a religious community was established even before the time of Christ on Mount Carmel. This is the mountain overlooking the Mediterranean Sea on which the prophet Elijah successfully challenged the priests of Baal and won the people over to the one true God. The feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel entered the calendar of the Universal Church in the early 18th century. Although there is no historical evidence of the pre-Christian Carmelite community, references in the 12th century record a community of monks living on the holy mountain. Despite continual difficulties, the community built a monastery and church dedicated to the Virgin Mary on Mount Carmel in 1263. Saint Louis, King Louis IX of France, had visited Mount Carmel in 1254, and brought back six French hermits for whom he built a convent near Paris. Mount Carmel was taken over by the Muslims in 1291, and the brothers were killed and the convent burned. The spread of the Carmelites in Europe is largely attributable to the work of the English priest St Simon Stock (1247–1265). The Carmelite Order was formally approved in 1274 at the Council of Lyon.

7. Novena and Feast Day: A Time for Renewal - Join us!

Each year, this historical devotion finds its pinnacle in the Novena to Our Lady of Mount Carmel – from 7 July to 16 July – a sacred time for renewal. These nine days invite every believer to deepen their understanding of what it means to belong to the people of God, aligning their heart with the heart of Our Lady. The Feast Day, 16 July, becomes the moment when countless faithful accept this call, making themselves holy temples for the glory of the Lord. The enrolment in the Brown Scapular is not a superficial ritual, but a sign of purpose in the family of God – the enrolment, the belonging and the purpose has the effect of fanning into flame the fire of God's love in the heart of a believer. No matter who or where you are, you can join us in this initiative.

8. A Holy Call for Our Times: To Find our Purpose and Mission in life

Today, when countless altars are being defiled or replaced by worldly things for unholy purposes, even to becoming desecrated by satanic powers, this call to be holy has never been more urgent. The Church needs to be a holy place. The faithful needs the Church. The Lord Himself seeks holy spaces with zeal – holy temples, where the heart is the Holy of Holies, and the Throne Room of God, where prayer does rise like incense before the Lord, and is heard and answered – and from where the light of Christ can illuminate the soul and shine out into the world. Through the heritage of Elijah and Solomon, through the example of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, through the sign of the Brown Scapular, we are called to stand upon the holy mountain, to bear witness to the holy altar to the holy Lamb of God, where His glory shines all around. Join our global virtual community and find your place and purpose in reaching out to the world.

9. Pray the Prayer of Holy Dedication - Accept this Call Today

Lord, let everyone who prays this prayer feel Your Divine presence shining down on them, like a pillar of cloud by day, and a pillar of fire by night. May their prayers rise up like incense before your altar. And may your glory shine all around them. Lord, hear and answer their prayers and send them your holy angels to assist them, to inspire them, to heal them, to deliver them, to preserve and protect them from all harm and danger. Lord, give them a faithful and faith-filled heart. Let them be a Holy Temple of praise and worship, with thanksgiving in their heart. Give them the gifts and the fruits of the Holy Spirit. Let them be fruitful vines, these children of Our Lady of Mount Carmel; heavenly Mother, intercede for those who say these prayers.

O Lord, make of me a temple for Your holy presence. Through Our Lady of Mount Carmel, clothe me in grace and humility. Let our hearts beat in unison. Let us be with one heart and one mind through the Holy Spirit. May everything I think, say and do bring You glory. Grant me the grace of Your Divine Will, and help me to delight in You always. Inspire me to bear witness to You and Your Saving Grace fearlessly, now and forever. Amen.

10. Q & A about the Brown Scapular

Q1: What is the Brown Scapular?

The Brown Scapular is a sign of belonging to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, belonging to God's family. It signifies dedication to God and obedience to Our Lady, reminding its wearer to live as a holy place, or tabernacle, for God.

Q2: Do I have to be a Carmelite to wear the Brown Scapular?

No. The Brown Scapular can be worn by any baptised Catholic who wishes to live a holy and dedicated life, following the example and spirituality of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Q3: What promises are associated with the Brown Scapular?

According to tradition, Our Lady promised that those who die wearing the scapular will not suffer the fires of hell. The scapular signifies the wearer's belonging and obedience to Heaven.

Q4: Do I have to pray certain prayers?

The Church encourages daily prayer, especially the Rosary, and regular reception of the holy Sacraments. To honour chastity. These practices deepen our relationship with God, deepen our faith and commitment. By simply wearing the Scapular, we are telling Mary every moment of the day that we venerate her, love her and trust in her protection.

Q5: What if I forget to wear the Scapular?

The scapular is an external sign, but the belonging it signifies rests within the heart. What truly matters is that the heart remains holy, pure in intention, open and dedicated to God.

Q6: Will Our Lady really protect those who wear the Scapular?

Our Lady promised intercession and protection for those wearing the Brown Scapular with devotion and obedience, leading them closer to her Son, Jesus Christ.

The Scapular Is a Silent Prayer

As Our Lord taught us to say the 'Our Father', Our Blessed Mother taught us the value of the scapular. When we use it as a prayer, Our Lady draws us to the Sacred Heart of Her Divine Son. It is good, therefore, to hold the scapular in the hand. A prayer offered while holding the Scapular is as perfect as a prayer can be. It is especially in time of temptation that we need the powerful intercession of God's Mother. The evil spirit is utterly powerless when the wearer of a scapular faces temptation, calling upon the Holy Virgin in this silent devotion. "If you had recommended yourself to me, you would not have run into such danger," was Our Lady's gentle reproach to Blessed Alan de la Roche, one of her devoted servants.

The scapular must be 100% wool without plastic casing and should not be pinned or affixed to clothing. It is worn over the head, under one's clothes, with one square of wool hanging on the chest and the other on the back. Pictures are not necessary.

St Simon Stock and the Brown Scapular - a gift brought from Heaven to earth by Our Lady herself

According to tradition, on 16 July, 1251, in Aylesford, England, Our Lady appeared with a multitude of angels to Simon Stock, a Carmelite monk. She handed him a brown woollen scapular, saying:

"This shall be a privilege for you and all Carmelites, that anyone dying in this habit shall not suffer eternal fire. Wear it devoutly and perseveringly... It is my garment. To be clothed in it means that you are continually thinking of me, and I, in turn, am always thinking of you and helping you to secure eternal life."

Over time, the Church extended this magnificent privilege to all the laity who are willing to be invested in the Brown Scapular of the Carmelite order and who perpetually wear it as well.

11. Enrolment in the Brown Scapular: What It Means and How to Live It

To be enrolled in the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel is to accept a sign and a calling. It means becoming a member of the holy Carmelite Family — a holy heritage of prayer, obedience, and belonging to the family of God.

What Holy Enrolment Means:

- You have been placed under the holy protection and maternal care of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.
- You have entered a spiritual bond with the holy Carmelite Order, sharing in its spiritual benefits and heritage.
- You have promised to live as a holy witness, making space for God within your heart and life.

The Rules and Spiritual Commitment:

1. Wear the holy Brown Scapular devoutly — as a sign of belonging and obedience.
2. Live a holy life of prayer — making space for holy moments of silence and reflection every day.
3. Embrace holy obedience and holy humility — following the example of Our Holy Lady in accepting God's holy Will.
4. Honour Our Lady — through practices such as praying the holy Rosary, Angelus, and attending holy Mass on feast days.
5. Remain faithful to the holy Sacraments — making regular confession and attending holy Mass to deepen belonging.
6. Live in simplicity and purity — making your heart and life a holy space wherein God can dwell.

How to Fulfill the Enrolment:

- Begin and end each day with prayer of dedication.
- In moments of trial, call upon Our Lady for strength.
- Be faithful to your holy heritage by attending holy Mass on the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel (16 July).
- Pray the Novena every year from 7-16 July, deepening your belonging and commitment.
- Trust deeply in Our Lady's protection and intercession.

Through this sign of belonging, you accept the call to stand upon the holy mountain, bear witness upon the holy altar, and live as a holy space wherein the glory of God can dwell.

Personal Prayer of Consecration

O Mother and Queen of Mount Carmel, I come to you with love and trust. I consecrate myself entirely to your Immaculate Heart. I promise to wear your Scapular faithfully as a sign of my dedication. Keep me always close to your Son Jesus. Cover me with your mantle of protection, and guide me in holiness until I reach the eternal dwelling of God. Amen.

"Totally yours, O Mary, I am all thine and all that I have is thine."

– St. Louis de Montfort

Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us. With loving provident care, O Mother Most Amiable, you covered us with your Scapular as a shield of defence against the Evil One. Through your assistance, may we bravely struggle against the powers of evil, always open to your Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

FLOS CARMELI

Prayer of St Simon Stock

O beautiful Flower of Carmel, most fruitful vine, Splendour of Heaven, Holy and singular, who brought forth the Son of God,
still ever remaining a Pure Virgin, assist me in this necessity.

O Star of the Sea, help and protect me!
Show me that Thou are my Mother.

O Mary, conceived without sin,
Pray for us who have recourse to Thee!

Mother and Beauty of Carmel, Pray for us!
Virgin, Flower of Carmel, Pray for us!
Patroness of all who wear the Scapular, Pray for us!
Hope of all who die wearing the Scapular, Pray for us!
St Joseph, Friend of the Sacred Heart, Pray for us!
St Joseph, Chaste Spouse of Mary, Pray for us!
St Joseph, Our Patron, Pray for us!
O sweet Heart of Mary, Be our salvation!

Place yourself into the care of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.
Consecrate yourself to her and

Devotional Guide for Breach Menders

What Does It Mean to Be a Breach Mender?

Isaiah 58:12 – 'You shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.'
A breach is a rupture – between God and humanity, in the Church, families, or our own hearts.
Breach-menders intercede, restore, and live in reparation through holiness and love.

Mary: The First and Greatest Breach Mender

Mary reversed Eve's 'No' with her 'Yes'.
She stood faithfully at the Cross and continues to intercede for sinners.
Through consecration to Mary, we join her in restoring what sin has broken.

Repairing Our Own Breaches

a. Daily Examination of Conscience:

Ask Holy Spirit where breaches have occurred in your spiritual life.

b. Confession and Sacraments: Reconciliation restores what sin has broken.

c. Identify areas of breaches and where possible the nature of the breach, the nature being the nature of its behaviour or attitude which does not line up with the Holy Spirit and may be demonic even though sometimes subtle. Reject, renounce, rebuke and command the spirit behind it to leave you, to go quietly and without any harm to you or anyone else, and to go to Jesus and never to come back.

d. Call on the Holy Spirit to give you the holy attribute/the grace/the virtue you need to overcome that breach as you begin to repair it.

c. Reparation: Offer sacrifices and prayer for your sins and those of others.

d. Living in the Divine Will: Invite God to act and repair through your every action and offering.

Becoming a Breach Mender for Others

a. Intercession: Pray and offer sacrifices for individuals and groups in need of healing.

b. Unity and Forgiveness: Be a source of peace and bridge-building.

c. Speak the Truth with Love: Stand for righteousness without losing charity.

d. Spiritual Works of Mercy: Teach, pray, console, and forgive as Jesus would.

Spiritual Tools of the Breach Mender

– Holy Rosary: Chain of grace restoring what has been lost.

– Brown Scapular: Sign of consecration and Marian protection.

– Prayer, the Lord's Prayer, Divine Mercy, Holy Rosary, devotions, etc..

– Divine Will Prayers: Acts of fusion (eg: Jesus' "Unity" prayer) and reparation in God's Will.

– Sacred Scripture: Isaiah 58; Ezekiel 22; Romans 12; Luke 1.

– Sacraments: Especially Confession and the Eucharist.

– Knowing how to put on the armour of God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. James 4:7

– Living in the Divine Presence as you go so that you can stand firm – Remain 'connected to the vine' (John 15) in every way possible, through the Word, the Eucharist, – Adoration, Prayer, in fellowship with the Holy Spirit, practising virtue, refraining from vice, etc...

Daily Prayer for Breach Menders

Lord, rebuild the ruins in my soul, drive out every evil and mend the breaches and firm them up never to be breached again. Through Mary, the repairer of Eve's fall, help me to be a restorer of the breach. Let my hands heal, my heart forgive, and my life repair what sin has broken in me and in my life. I live not for myself any more but in and for Your Divine Will to prevail, so that I may become everything you created me to be and fulfill my God-given purpose and destiny in this life and into eternity and all for the glory of my Lord Jesus Christ. Fill me with your peace and your protection, and may the fire of your Holy Spirit fall on me again and again, and consume me, and make me Holy, a living Temple of Your presence. Use me, Lord, to make reparation, restore hope, and bring Your presence to a broken world, one soul at a time, or in groups, as you will. Amen.

Scriptures and prayers for Breach Menders

Ephesians 6:13

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might. Put on the full armour of God, so that you will be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore, take up the full armour of God, so that you will be able to resist on the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand firm therefore, having belted your waist with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having strapped on your feet the preparation of the gospel of peace; in addition to all, taking up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Put on:

The Belt of Truth (Eph 6:14) Jesus at the centre, holding it all together

"Lord, wrap me in Your truth and help me to discern and speak the truth in every situation. Let Your truth be the foundation of my life, guiding me in all my decisions."

The Breastplate of Righteousness (Eph 6:14) You stand in righteousness because of the blood of Jesus; guard your heart, don't allow any hardness or bitterness to take root

"Heavenly Father, protect my heart with the breastplate of righteousness. Let my life reflect Your righteousness, and guard me from any attacks that seek to lead me into sin or despair."

The Shoes of the Gospel of Peace (Eph 6:15) Carry the presence and peace of Jesus everywhere you go

"Lord, equip me with the shoes of the gospel of peace. Help me to walk in Your peace wherever I go, and use me to spread Your good news to those in need of Your saving grace."

Prayer for the Shield of Faith (Eph 6:16) Faith, not feelings; protect yourself from wounding darts

"Father, strengthen my faith so that I can extinguish every fiery dart the enemy sends my way. Help me to trust in You completely, knowing that my faith in You is my greatest defence."

Prayer for the Helmet of Salvation (Eph 6:17) Keep in mind that you are saved, loved; not condemned

"Lord, protect my mind with the helmet of salvation. Keep my thoughts focused on You and remind me of the assurance of my salvation in Christ Jesus. Let Your saving grace guide my mind and decisions."

Prayer for the Sword of the Spirit (Eph 6:17) Attack, land a blow on the enemy with the Word of God

"Father, I take up the sword of the Spirit, which is Your Word. Teach me to wield it with wisdom and power against the enemy's lies and attacks."

John 15:1

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."

Isaiah 30:26 Give the breach, the wound, past hurts, the grief to Jesus. Allow and trust Him to work. He goes directly to the brokenness. He knows how to heal and repair right at the point of entry

"The Lord binds up the breach of his people, and heals the stroke of their wound."

Psalms 147:3

"He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds."

The Unity Prayer (to unite our every part of our being with that of Jesus, and to blind Satan)

My adorable Jesus

May our feet journey together

May our hands gather in unity

May our hearts beat in unison

May our souls be in harmony

May our thoughts be as one

May our ears listen to the silence together

May our glances profoundly penetrate each other

And may our lips pray together, to gain mercy from the eternal Father. Amen.

Immaculate Mary, Mother of Jesus, spread the effect of grace of your Flame of Love (Jesus) over all of humanity now and forever. Amen.

HEALED, RESTORED, RENEWED, TRANSFORMED... DURING A LIVE ONLINE HEALING SERVICE!

Can you really be healed by attending a Catholic healing service online?

Be delivered from cancer? Suddenly get up and walk after being bedridden for 15 years?

YES! Glory to God! Read the testimonies of Sister Maria Gloria and Ochen Eunice, whose lives were MIRACULOUSLY TRANSFORMED after Spiro's Healing Service on Zoom in November 2024

“WIDESPREAD CANCER DISAPPEARED!”

Sr Maria Gloria shares her miraculous healing

MOMENTS OF JOY AND GRATITUDE

My name is Sister Maria Gloria Pascalina Nthenya, a Catholic nun of the Second Order of Saint Clare of Assisi, and I live in Spain. In November 2023, I was diagnosed with tumours that were spreading throughout my body: uterus, ovaries, liver, head, and breasts. I was bleeding constantly, suffered with severe headaches, intense pain, and felt extremely weak. I visited several doctors. I struggled with depression, anxiety, mental confusion, but all efforts were in vain.

In March, I underwent surgery on my uterus and suffered a minor stroke, which caused me to lose vision in my left eye and hearing in my left ear. This left me hopeless and discouraged. Although I felt strong, I was deeply worried about my life, and my family feared I would die without seeing my mother again. Then, my superior told me to go home for two months to visit my family.

During that time, I had an X-ray and a check-up, and the doctor told me that the tumours were still spreading and that they could very likely become cancerous. Hearing that, my heart broke, and my hopes for living faded away. I began to lose my faith, asking myself if God was truly within me, and why He was sending me such a difficult trial. My five senses were completely paralyzed. I was affected mentally, physically, and spiritually.

When I returned to Spain, a friend of mine, with whom I had shared my situation, called and advised me to search online for someone from the UK named Spiro, who has an online healing and deliverance ministry. I didn't react immediately; I thought about it and remained silent for two weeks, waiting for my medical appointments.

When I went for a check-up in October 2024, the doctor said: “Sister, I’m concerned about your health because it seems the medication isn’t working and you’re not improving.” On hearing this, I decided to message Spiro. Luckily, he was online and responded: “I will pray for you.” A few minutes later, he called me, we talked, but I thought it was impossible for any healing to happen to me. He prayed with me. Two days later, I received a message with an invitation to a Live healing service on Zoom on 30 November.

The Scriptures Spiro used during the teaching part of the service stayed with me: Hebrews 4:16, Psalm 27 verses 4 and 8, Genesis 17:1, John 17:1-8, and Revelation 12. After meditating, I discovered one thing I desired from the Lord: His will and to seek Him, to dwell in His house all the days of my life. I understood that I must share in God’s glory no matter how much I was suffering, because God is willing to free me from all illness if I am sincere with Him.

On 5 December 2024, I had an X-ray, and the doctor told me he was surprised because everything was working well. I had improved, the tumours had reduced, and some had disappeared! All glory to God!

He booked a follow-up appointment for the following month. In January 2025, I went again for X-rays and tests, and everything was fine — only some remnants remained in the breast and ovary. The doctor told me, “You’re no longer in danger. I’ll discharge you for a year.” I stopped taking medication and my pain has decreased. Now I participate in community activities. What was impossible for humans, God healed in a second.

Finally, I want to say that growing in faith means surrendering to the Father, imitating our Mother Mary. With patience and humility, one can become a true saint:

Psalm 107, Romans 10:17, Proverbs 4:20-27, Mark 9:23, Jeremiah 17:14. Every day I use these Scriptures and pray using Psalms 23, 50, 57, 91, 139, and Mary’s Fiat. My healing experience has changed the way I think and has strengthened my faith. I have learned how to move mountains in my life, and it is good to obey God’s Word. It is important to be clear, concise in prayer, and always focused on salvation. Practise giving God a chance and waiting for His fulfillment. Another thing I’ve learned is to respect the Holy Sacraments, and that there is always hope for anyone who lives in the Presence of Jesus. I cannot lose hope in life; there are always moments to grow through God’s trials. All glory to God!

“ALONE, BEDRIDDEN, ABANDONED AND HOMELESS FOR 15 YEARS. NOW I’M BLESSED!”

Ochen Eunice came to one of our Live Zoom healing services... Little did she know that a powerful move of God would heal her. Then two weeks later, her husband, who had abandoned her 15 years previously, would suddenly turn up after Spiro prayed for his return. And, to top it all off, the council took her off the homeless list by providing a home for her and her family. An incredible story of three miracles in succession.

Ochen says: “I was 15 years on my back in bed. I could not leave the house or get off my bed to do anything for myself. The hospital team and doctors had to come and help me get in an ambulance for my periodic assessments. I did not go outside for anything, other than to go into the ambulance to the assessment unit, for 15 years! My husband had left me. I was homeless and then, thanks to a tip from a helpful visitor to where I was staying, I attended a jesus4usall.com live healing service on Zoom in November 2024. I was flat out on my bed. Spiro heard my story and began praying for me. He said: ‘Enough is enough. We can’t have this any more. You ought to be free!’ After Spiro prayed for me, I got off my bed, and I started walking. My husband returned, calling me ‘Darling’, and the council offered me a house! Glory to God! Because of Spiro’s prayer ministry, I got my life back! And now I want to serve this mission! Nobody asked me to volunteer, God put it on my heart! Praise God. All the glory to Jesus.”

“DEAFNESS GONE! NUMBNESS GONE! VERTIGO GONE! AND I’VE STOPPED TAKING MEDICATION. AND I’M A NURSE! PRAISE GOD!”

Lucia in America was healed during Spiro’s live Zoom healing service on 30 January 2025

Praise and Glory to Jesus Christ, my Lord and Saviour. My name is Lucia Kiarie, and I am a nurse by profession. I thank God I saw a poster [for the Jesus4UsAll.com live Zoom Healing service] on one of my WhatsApp groups that I share with Brother Silas Kiriinya, and decided to attend. I waited patiently, and towards the end of the session, I wrote on the Zoom chat that I needed prayers for my right ear which had been bothering me for about two years. I could not hear with it; and I also kept hearing a buzzing noise in the same ear. Brother Spiro prayed for me, and in an instant, I started hearing again; and on touching it, I could feel my ear ‘live’ again - previously, it had been numb! Amazing! I thank God for healing me! I was also frequently suffering from vertigo - and feeling like the room was spinning - it was a very devastating experience, and I was taking medicine for it. But since my ear was healed, I have not felt any spinning, or vertigo; and I have not taken any medication for it. Thank You Jesus! 🙌 All glory to You Jesus!

Rita from Lebanon on her COMPLETE healing and learning how to confront the enemy

Hello, my name is Rita. I am Lebanese. I live and work in France. I met Spiro a few years ago, when my father was very ill, and we stayed in touch. In May 2025, I joined one of his Empowerment seminars live on Zoom. I began to understand things I'd never thought of before.

“My life was full of heavy burdens”

I was feeling overwhelmed, confused, and anxious, with heavy burdens in many aspects of my life. I was suffering from allergies and had back and neck pains. My right arm and hand were numb - sometimes I could barely move them. I started facing small daily challenges like electricity failures and water shortages.

I asked Spiro if he could minister to me. Early in the session, and despite my resistance, he started bringing some truth about how I opened my life to the demonic through my ignorance and practices such as fortune-telling, divination, and ungodly soul ties. Spiro explained that sometimes we can bring death by the errors of our ways. Jesus is The Way, the Truth and the Life (John 14:6), but satan comes to steal, kill, and destroy (John 10:10). He then asked me to forgive everyone and to ask God to cancel my judgments. He guided me through Scriptures, and the most powerful ones were: “Seek God first, His kingdom and righteousness” (Matthew 6:30-33); “If you continue in My word, then you are truly My disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” (John 8:32); “You did not choose Me but I chose you, and appointed you that you would go and bear fruit, and that your fruit would remain, so that whatever you ask of the Father in My name He may give to you.” (John 15:16)

“Mountains began to shift from my life!”

Spiro played a video, “The God Who Sees,” featuring Nicole C. Mullen, and I started feeling a shift. I felt peace. My back and neck pains were gone. I felt the deep joy of the Lord. I felt reborn with a bright, shining light of clarity in my mind. I'd read these Scriptures before, but now they were coming alive in me. It felt like a rebirth.

Then Spiro guided me through prayers of renunciation, rejection, and disassociation, casting off the kingdom of darkness. He guided me through prayers of unyoking with the enemy and then yoking me to Jesus, praising Him and making Him Lord. He prayed for the release of the anointing of Jesus Christ to come upon me. Every now and then, Spiro asked me to get up and walk, raise my arms and legs, and take a few steps to release the Spirit's power in my flesh and my soul. And every time I did it, I felt looser, lighter, stronger. My back was healed - my neck, my shoulder, and my hand. Spiro warned me that “Temptation is to sin what symptoms are to sickness,” and that I should name the symptoms, reject and rebuke them the way I reject temptation - to reject sickness in the name of Jesus.

“The presence of Almighty God covered me”

The following day, my physical pains were gone. But I was challenged again with the temptation of the symptoms: my skin allergy was back, and my right hand was numb again.

Later in the evening, I connected with Spiro to share my testimony, and he asked me if I had any challenges. When I said yes, he taught me how to deal with it, and he guided me in prayer to exercise my authority. Then he commanded the numbness in my arm to go. I felt vibration from my head to my arm and goosebumps all over the rest of my body. I started crying because I felt the presence of Almighty God, and it was an amazing revelation for me. This was ABOVE AND BEYOND anything I'd already experienced - on a COMPLETELY NEW LEVEL.

And I asked, “Why is it that when I pray and exercise in the name of Jesus, I do not see the same power?” Spiro said: “SPEND MORE TIME WITH THE ANOINTED ONE. DO NOT COMPROMISE THE GLORY THAT BELONGS TO GOD. THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT IS THE WORD OF GOD, AND YOU HAVE TO ENGAGE IN WARFARE WITH THE ENEMY, JUST LIKE JESUS HAD TO, AS WE READ IN LUKE CHAPTER 4.”

The next morning, I woke up with the same allergy and rash over my face and texted Spiro, who called me straight away. Spiro rebuked and rejected the symptoms I was experiencing. He showed me HOW to reject them, and at first nothing happened. Then we asked the Lord to forgive me for anything that needed forgiving and for me to forgive anyone who needs forgiving. Spiro called me to renounce anything that needed renouncing. He also guided me to reject compromise. There was a slight improvement! Then Spiro asked me to get water, and he guided me on how to bless it. I applied it to my face and sprinkled it all around. Then we thanked God, and there was more improvement. With every submission to God, He healed me more and more; with every resistance to the devil, there was even more improvement - until I was completely healed! But not without a real fierce battle, which we won, in the name of Jesus. Some of it came back again. And for a short while, there was a real struggle as it left and kept coming back. Then Spiro told me that I had been healed and asked ME to COMMAND SATAN TO GIVE BACK MY HEALING AND THE GLORY THAT BELONGS TO JESUS - to restore the healing and the glory he stole from Our Lord Jesus Christ. There was improvement again. I wish everyone could experience what I experienced in the past 48 hours: the truth, the presence of God, His power over my life. His healing power and his victory. Praise and glory to the Lord. God is so good.

ON OUR WATCH, SEPTEMBER 2025

IS THE 7-YEAR TRIBULATION IMMINENT? ALL EYES ARE ON JERUSALEM AS IT PREPARES FOR THE BUILDING OF THE THIRD TEMPLE; FIRST RED HEIFER SACRIFICED; SANHEDRIN APPOINTS HIGH PRIEST; AND THE SHOFAR HAS BEEN SOUNDED ON TEMPLE MOUNT. THESE HAVEN'T HAPPENED FOR 2000 YEARS...

This is part of our mission at Jesus4UsAll.com to keep you informed.

We are living in the most prophetic time in history since the first coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. No matter how close we are to the building of the Third Temple in Jerusalem, that event must be preceded by what is called in Scripture as the 7-Year Peace Plan between the Antichrist and Israel. The world is watching on as Israel is moving deeper into Gaza, literally taking occupation of the land. Whilst at the same time, they seem to be speaking about a Peace Treaty, between them, Lebanon and Syria. They also seem to be suggesting that once they've taken Gaza, they could hand over the caretaking of the country to a third nation, or to the United Nations.

What we are not hearing at the moment may also have a significance in understanding the real purpose of the military action in Gaza. The multibillion-dollar investment project known as The Ben Gurion Canal project. This 160-mile-long sea-level project was a proposal in the 1960s by Israel to connect the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea through the Negev Desert (Israel) and the southern end of the Gulf of Aqaba (coastline shared by four countries: Egypt, Israel, Jordan, and Saudi Arabia) bypassing the Suez Canal and challenging Egypt's monopoly on the shortest Europe-Asia route.

The passage would start by the port city of Eilat in Israel through the Gulf of Aqaba, crossing the Jordanian border and flowing through the Arabah Valley before entering the Dead Sea and heading north around the Gaza Strip. The estimated cost is $100 billion USD, and the imperative of political stability and the constant military threat are significant security concerns. Speculations suggest that Israel's desire to control Gaza and eliminate Hamas is linked to unlocking economic opportunities tied to the Canal. The economic gain from the Ben Gurion Canal would undoubtedly far outweigh the expense as the project will turn profitable quickly. When the co-developers share the expense for the construction of the Canal, it would be minimal and affordable. The Ben Gurion Canal is projected to generate 10 billion dollars a year as soon as international trade between the East and the West continues to soar.

Why is this important? And why is it something we are looking at? We know that before the building of the Third Temple in Jerusalem there will be a 7-Year Peace Treaty, agreed

REMEMBERING THE ANNUAL MESSAGE FROM OUR LADY TO MIRJANA ON 18 MARCH 2025 MEDJUGORJE

18 MARCH to the visionary Mirjana Dragicevic-Soldo

The visionary Mirjana Dragicevic-Soldo had daily apparitions from 24 June 1981 to 25 December 1982. During the last daily apparition, Our Lady gave her the 10th secret, and told her that she would appear to her once a year, on the 18 March. It has been this way through the years. This latest apparition lasted from 13:30 to 13:35.

"Dear children! With motherly love I implore you: give me your hands folded in prayer, give me your hearts cleansed in confession and I will lead you to my Son. Because, my children, only my Son, with His light, can illuminate the darkness; only He, with His Word, can remove suffering. Therefore, do not be afraid to walk with me, because I am leading you to my Son - salvation. Thank you."

between the Antichrist and Israel. Similar to the Abrahamic Peace Accords, it will promise Prosperity for Peace. This would coincide with a prophecy in the Book of Daniel, of the 70th week (Daniel 9:27 And he will confirm a covenant with the many for one week, but in the middle of the week he will put a stop to sacrifice and grain offering; and on the wing of abominations will come the one who makes desolate, until a complete destruction, one that is decreed, gushes forth on the one who makes desolate). The one week here represents the 7-Year Tribulation, and halfway through the week represents the three and a half years of the first part of the 7-Year Tribulation, and the last three and a half year known as "The Great Tribulation" – the centrepiece between these two is when the Antichrist takes up his place in the Temple to become an object of worship. We could easily assume that this multibillion-dollar project would bring a great incentive to the region in that it would be sold as a Prosperity for Peace initiative. This is echoed in 1 Thessalonians 5:3, where it says, "While they are saying, 'Peace and safety!' then sudden destruction will come upon them like labour pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape."

Jesus points to this also in Matthew 24:15, which interestingly enough is headed as "Perilous Times"; "Therefore when you see the abomination of desolation which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place – let the reader understand – then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains. Whoever is on the housetop must not go down to get things out of his house. And whoever is in the field must not turn back to get his cloak. But woe to those women who are pregnant, and to those who are nursing babies in those days! Moreover, pray that when you flee, it will not be in the winter, or on a Sabbath. For then there will be a great tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will again. And if those days had not been cut short, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short."

We are living in those perilous times; in fact, these are the times described by Jesus as being even worse than in the time of Noah; the distress that will come upon the earth to everyone during the Great Tribulation will be greater than anything ever before, or anything ever to come. This is literally both the worst, and one of the best times to live on planet earth.

Revelation 6

Putting this into perspective, and since this time is described as a woman in travail, the disasters, the calamities, the wars, the celestial bodies will all begin, then increase in severity and in intensity as we move through the 7-Year Tribulation. What does it mean when the Scripture says "Like a woman in delivery?" What are we seeing birthed? What comes after the 7-Year Tribulation? What comes with every breaking of the Seven Seals? Or the blowing of the Seven Trumpets? Or the release of the Sevens Bowls? Which are God's Righteous Judgements on the earth (Revelation 6 onward)? We know that Revelation 6 describes the rising of the Antichrist and the Mark of the Beast. We saw how easily people were manipulated, or incentivised, or coerced, to receiving a medical intervention that was experimental in the name of saving humanity. Many were deceived. But many stood up for truth as well, and found themselves treated as outcasts. Jesus begins Matthew 24 with, "See that no one misleads you," warning us that many people will come in the name of peace and salvation, but will be like ravenous wolves in sheep's clothing. This is why in Revelations 6, when Jesus breaks the first seal in Heaven, a rider on a white horse is seen first. "Then I saw when the Lamb broke one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, 'Come!' I looked, and behold, a white horse, and the one who sat on it had a bow (Greek: 'poisonous arrow'); and a crown (Latin: 'corona') was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer."

Many mistake the white horse rider for Jesus, but this is a deception. It is someone who presents himself as a righteous man/saviour looking to do good, but in reality is coming to poison humanity with a spell of sorcery. This is a theme in Revelation 18:23 "and the light of a lamp will never shine in you again; and the voice of the groom and bride will never be heard in you again; for your merchants (Interlinear Bible: the great commercial elite of these days) were the powerful people of the earth, because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery. (Greek: pharmakeia/pharmacy)"

The good news is that Jesus does come riding on a white horse! He does come to save us from the Antichrist; from the corruption on the earth, from the wicked merchants and sorcerers. He does come to destroy the wicked; to renew the earth. He comes to fulfill the Lord's Prayer; to birth into the new and final millennium the Kingdom of God on earth. And He does remove Satan from the earth.

Revelation 19

See Revelation 19: 11-16 The Coming of Christ "And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who sat on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and wages war. His eyes are a flame of fire, and on His head are many crowns; and He has a name written on Him which no one knows except Himself. He is clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. And the armies which are in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, were following Him on white horses. From His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that with it He may strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron; and He treads the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty. And on His robe and on His thigh He has a name written: "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

But before this, something really incredible happens... The Wedding of the Lamb. This will be a spiritual event. This will establish the Divine Will in the human heart. This will restore humanity back to God, as it was before Adam and Eve fell. This is described in Revelation 19:7-9 "Let's rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, because the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His bride has prepared herself." It was given to her to clothe herself in fine linen, bright and clean; for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints."

We must prepare now, like the five wise bridesmaids, we must maintain ourselves in a state of grace and keep ourselves in the anointing of Christ. We could adopt the advice of the apostle John, who in his teaching in the first letter of John, describes the four conditions in following Christ.

1. Break with sin
2. Follow the commandments, especially the commandments of love
3. Detach from the world
4. Be on guard against the enemies of Christ (the Antichrist)

Like a bride-to-be waiting for her groom, we must be about doing good, and on our best behaviour, focused and anticipating the coming of Our Lord. There will be rejoicing when the love of God powerfully touches our hearts to unite them with His own, to Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ!

When a woman comes to term in her pregnancy, everything is ready for the arrival of the baby. So, too, now, and with a sense of urgency, the Bride of Christ, the Body of Christ, the Church, must prepare herself for the coming of Christ. That we may be counted worthy, not only to escape what must come upon on the earth, but also remaining prayerful and watchful; and now, more than ever before, we must be about doing the work of the Kingdom; the Great Commission - the salvation of souls, and the making of disciples in all nations.

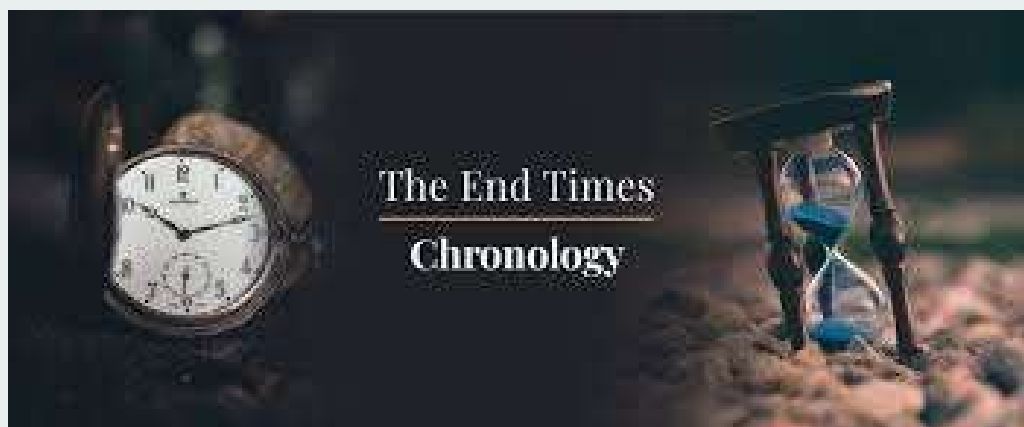

For those who make it into the New and final Millennium, it will be like the time Noah came out of the Ark. So, too, those who have gone through "The Great Tribulation" will come out of "The Three Days of Darkness" and into the Glorious Light of a renewed and refreshed earth. By now Satan will have been taken away from the earth and put into chains, and so he will not be around to bring us temptations any more. What a wonderful time on earth it will be! A time for repopulating the earth. A time for worshipping God and thanking Him for saving and restoring us and rewarding us so mercifully! In the coming times of distress, persevere and endure, and hold on to your faith. Do not let your hearts be troubled or hardened by the great injustices of these times, but in all things trust the Lord. The crown of life awaits you. A new day is dawning. Sadness and sorrow will be replaced with joy and gladness. Rejoicing will be heard once more; and the joy of the human heart will be greater than ever before. Stand firm and stay strong, for the Lord is with you. Do not be afraid.

We are right now embarking on the final approach to the rebuilding of the new and Third Temple of Jerusalem, that will start the timer on the 7-Year period that will conclude with the Coming of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Who will make all things right. Come Lord Jesus, Come! Maranatha!

THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS IS AFLAME WITH LOVE FOR MANKIND

JESUS4USALL.COM'S FIRST FRIDAY PENITENTIAL HEALING SERVICE

LORD HEAL US, OUR FAMILIES, OUR CHURCH AND OUR NATIONS

AN INITIATIVE INSPIRED BY THREE ENCOUNTERS WITH GOD

1. God's conversation with Abraham and the destruction of Sodom. Genesis 18:22-33
2. Appearance of Jesus to St Margaret-Mary who saw Jesus' Sacred Heart on a throne of flames, clear as crystal, surrounded by a crown of thorns signifying the sins of mankind, with a cross above it.
3. Appearance of the Holy Trinity and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Sister Lucia of Fatima on 13th June 1929. The need for repentance, reparation, and to consecrate Russia to the Immaculate Heart.

JESUS APPEARS TO ST MARGARET-MARY

Jesus promises to those who honour and make reparation to His Sacred Heart: "I will be their secure refuge during their life." To escape what must come on the earth Luke 21:36

The Sacred Heart devotion most people know today started with St Margaret-Mary, who was visited by Jesus in December 1673 and December 1675. France and its monarchy fell because it failed to consecrate France to the Sacred Heart, as Jesus asked. In addition, Our Lady asked St Catherine Labouré to pray for France on 27 November 1830.

GOD'S CONVERSATION WITH ABRAHAM RAISING 10 RIGHTEOUS MEN/WOMEN FOR THE LORD IN EVERY PLACE AROUND THE WORLD

When Abraham pleaded with God to spare Sodom and Gomorrah - for the sake of 10 Good men/Women living there (Genesis 18:16-33)

At Fatima in 1917, Our Lady talked about the world being on the wrong path, and the consequent chastisements of the End Times, cf Luke 17:28-30

Can we End-Times believers today be like Abraham and persuade God to spare nations and cities if we raise 10 good people in every place around the world?

HOLY TRINITY & OUR LADY'S APPEARANCE TO SISTER LUCIA AND CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED AND IMMACULATE HEARTS

Our Lord's Sacred Heart apparitions to St Margaret-Mary were echoed by Our Lady's Immaculate Heart apparitions at Fatima in 1917. Much later, on 13 June 1929, after Fatima seer Lucia had become a Carmelite nun, Our Lady appeared to her in a convent in Tuy, Spain, saying: "The moment has come in which God asks the Holy Father (the Pope) to make, and to order that in union with him and at the same time, all the bishops of the world make the consecration of Russia to My Immaculate Heart, promising to convert it because of this day of prayer and worldwide reparation." Jesus, who also appeared to Sr Lucia on this day, warned there will be problems if the world doesn't heed heaven's warnings; if Russia delays consecrating itself to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, just as France delayed consecrating itself to the Sacred Heart centuries before.

INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

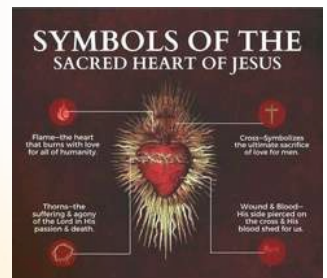

As the world moves further and further away from God and the Gospel becomes less relevant to people all around the world, we are tasked by Our Lord Jesus Christ to continue with the Great Commission to spread the Gospel and to make God and His love known to all people.

There is a distinct move by the secular, or even pagan, world to diminish the Bible, The Good News and the name of God as revealed through Our Lord Jesus Christ, as well as to even begin a programme of changing God's very own creation, including the Image and Nature of God in Man.

Our role is to come to terms with what's really happening and to recognise that we were created in and for these times, and this is by no means any surprise to God. We were made to rise up in faith, love and hope, to make known God, His Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, and the soon-return of Jesus Christ, not as Saviour, but to establish the Kingdom in the hearts of His people and to remove His enemies from the face of the earth. The heart of God is continuously being afflicted by man's sins, and as wickedness grows exponentially in our times, God is watching, hoping for men and women of faith to rise up as children of the light and to bring light into the world to save souls and to expose the works of futile darkness.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

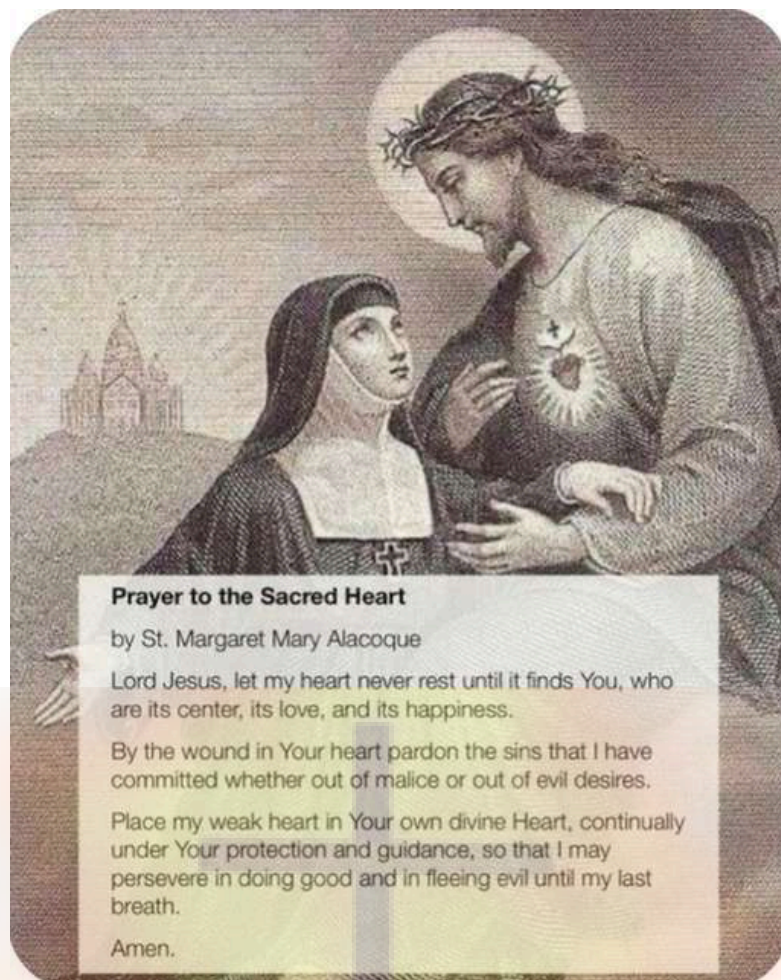

- We, the People of God, must turn back to God with all our hearts. (2 Chronicles 7:14)
- Recognise who and what we are in Christ.
- Live Holy and Sacramental Lives.
- Remain right with God through our Faith in Jesus. (James 5:16)
- Live and Spread the Gospel through the knowledge of God Saving Grace.
- Live by Faith and not by Fear. (Hebrews 11)
- Decide that we must live as children of light., children of the Kingdom. (1 John)
- We should help restore the domestic Church, the family, the home church; and develop God's people in all areas of society that they may become effective ambassadors of Christ.
- Learn to live by faith and in fellowship with the Holy Spirit.
- To reach out Globally to our Brothers and Sisters with the aim of building them up as effective and mature, faith-filled and faithful Christians.
- Equip our brothers and sisters in Christ with the knowledge, skills and attitude to become servants of Our Lord Jesus, available to their parishes and communities to help them grow in faith and in service.
- To promote that we should take advantage of God's mercy while it's still available.
- We should all consecrate ourselves, our families, homes, communities and even our nations to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

JESUS' 12 PROMISES OF THE DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART

1. "I will give them all the Grace necessary in their state of life."
2. "I will establish peace in their families."
3. "I will console them in their afflictions."
4. "I will be their secure refuge during their life - and especially at the hour of their death."
5. "I will shower down abundant blessings on all their undertakings."
6. "Sinners shall find My Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy."
7. "Tepid souls shall become fervent."
8. "Fervent souls shall rise speedily to great perfection."
9. "I will bless every place in which an image of my Sacred Heart shall be exposed and honoured."
10. "I will give to priests the power of touching the most hardened hearts."
11. "Persons who promote this Devotion shall have their names written in My Heart, never to be effaced."
12. "I promise in the excessive mercy of My Heart that My all-powerful love will grant to those who receive Communion on the First Friday, nine months consecutively, the grace of final repentance. They shall not die in mortal sin, nor without having received their Sacraments, for My Divine Heart will become their secure refuge in this last moment."

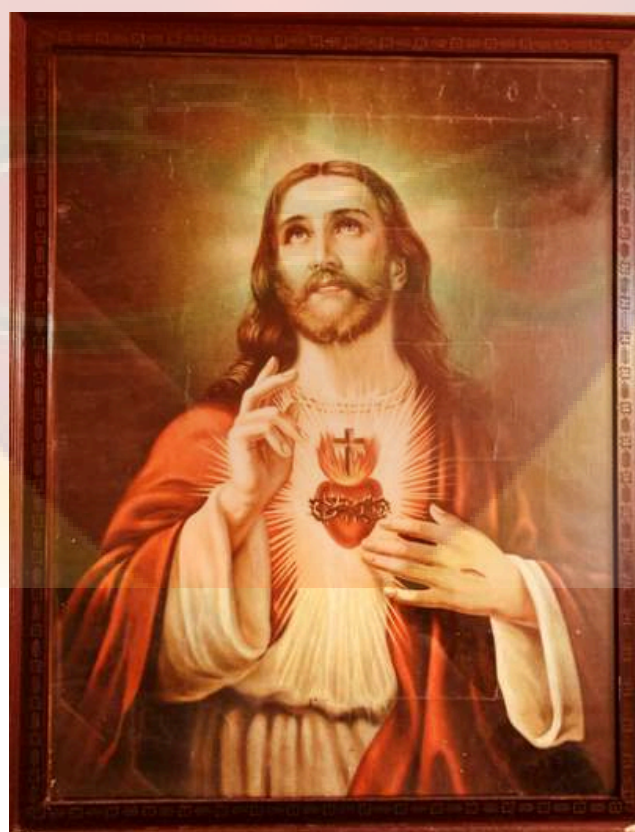

“BEHOLD THE HEART WHICH HAS SO LOVED MEN”

‘That the necessity of EXPIATION or REPARATION is especially urgent today must be evident to everyone who considers the present plight of the world, “seated in wickedness” (1 John 5:19). The Sacred Heart of Jesus promised to St Margaret Mary that He would reward abundantly with His graces all those who should render this honour to HIS HEART.’

(Pope Pius XI - Encyclical ‘Misericordissimus’)

Dreams, Visions and Heavenly Experiences

Have we seen the last Pope? Is there any truth in the prophetic visions of St Malachy?

Among the many curiosities of Catholic history, few are as enduring as the Prophecy of the Popes, commonly attributed to St Malachy of Armagh, a 12th-century Irish archbishop. This prophecy, cloaked in cryptic Latin mottos and centuries of legend, purports to predict the succession of Roman Catholic popes from the 12th century until the end of time. In an age marked by uncertainty, papal transitions, and global instability, the prophecy has resurfaced in popular discourse — raising the question: Have we seen the last pope?

To begin with, it's important to understand the nature and origin of this prophecy. Tradition holds that St Malachy received a vision during a pilgrimage to Rome in 1139. In it, he foresaw a series of 112 future popes, each represented by a short, symbolic phrase. These mottos were said to encapsulate key aspects of the popes' identities, reigns, or origins. Yet, this manuscript was not published during Malachy's lifetime — or even in the centuries following his death. It remained unknown until 1595, when a Benedictine monk named Arnold de Wyon published it in his book Lignum Vitae. The delay of over 400 years is the first clue that casts a long shadow of doubt over the document's authenticity.

The prophecy begins with Celestine II, who reigned in 1143, and continues through 111 other pontiffs. Each is assigned a symbolic motto — ranging from the poetic ("From the midst of the moon") to the generic ("Religious man"). The final entry stands apart from the rest. It names a pope called "Peter the Roman," who, it says, will "feed his flock amid many tribulations" before the city of seven hills — traditionally understood to be Rome — is destroyed and the "dreadful judge" returns to judge humanity. This has led many to associate Peter the Roman with the final pope who will preside over the End Times and the Last Judgment.

Those who advocate for the prophecy's authenticity often point to its early entries, which appear to match historical facts with uncanny precision. For example, one motto, "From the high hermitage," fits well with Celestine V, a pope who was formerly a hermit. Another, "From the labour of the sun," has been linked to St John Paul II, who was born during a solar eclipse and whose funeral occurred during another. However, a deeper look reveals that the first 74 mottos — those that seem most accurate — were composed before the prophecy was published. That they align so well with historical popes may suggest they were written after the fact rather than through divine foresight.

In contrast, the remaining mottos — those that pertain to popes reigning after 1590 — become far more vague and open to interpretation. Their symbolism often appears strained or only fits with the benefit of hindsight. Critics argue this sharp divide is clear evidence that the prophecy was a forgery, likely concocted in the 16th century to influence the outcome of a papal election. With the conclave of 1590 looming, there was immense political intrigue in Rome, and a fabricated prophecy that conveniently favoured one candidate over another would have been a powerful tool.

The Catholic Church itself does not endorse the Prophecy of St Malachy as part of its official teaching. It is categorised as a "private revelation", meaning that Catholics are free to consider it, but are not required to believe it. The Church teaches that public revelation — what is found in Scripture and Tradition — ended with the death of the last Apostle. As such, no prophecy or private vision can add to or override that revelation.

Did the 12th century bishop prophesise today's Pope?

Furthermore, the Church strongly cautions the faithful against falling into obsession with End-Times speculation. As Jesus himself said in Matthew 24:36, "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone."

Still, the mystery persists. The last pontiff, Pope Francis, is — according to some interpretations of the prophecy — the 112th and final pope. His reign has been marked by global crises, ecclesial reform, and deep ideological divisions within the Church. These realities have led some to ask whether he may be the prophesied "Peter the Roman" — or whether his successor will fulfill that role. Interestingly, one of the most prominent names often mentioned as a possible future pope, before Leo XIV was elected, was Cardinal Pietro Parolin, the former Vatican Secretary of State, whose name — Pietro — and Italian heritage seem to fit the title. Yet this, too, may be coincidence, or a modern attempt to fit the puzzle together in retrospect.

So how should the faithful approach this Malachy vision? If the prophecy is false, it is at worst a curious historical forgery and, at best, a poetic meditation on Church history. But if it contains some truth, even a veiled spiritual one, then what is its purpose?

The answer lies not in predicting dates or naming the last pontiff, but in spiritual preparation. Prophecies, whether authentic or apocryphal, are never meant to incite fear or feed conspiracy. Rather, they should move the heart to repentance, vigilance, and hope. The point of any prophecy, especially within the Christian tradition, is not about how the world ends, but about how we live until it does.

The Church has endured for over two millennia through every conceivable storm: wars, plagues, betrayals, persecutions, and even internal corruption. And, yet, it still stands, rooted in Christ's own promise: "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matthew 16:18). The end of an age – or even the reign of a pope – is not the end of the Church, nor the end of God's plan.

Ultimately, whether or not we are living under the last pope is not for us to know. What matters is that we are living our lives in faithfulness, charity, and readiness. We are called not to interpret cryptic symbols, but to keep our lamps lit, to be watchful and wise – for our true Shepherd comes not according to our timeline, but in the perfect hour known only to God. the ultimate message of the Gospel remains unchanged: to watch, to pray, and to place trust not in predictions, but in the providence of God.

Pope Francis and the Final Prophecy: Is He "Peter the Roman"?

The Prophecy of the Popes, attributed to the 12th-century Irish bishop St Malachy, ends with an ominous and enigmatic statement about the final pope: "In the final persecution of the Holy Roman Church, there will reign Peter the Roman, who will feed his flock among many tribulations. After which, the seven-hilled city will be destroyed and the dreadful Judge will judge the people." As the 112th and last entry in the list, this phrase has generated intense speculation among those who believe the prophecy is legitimate. With Pope Francis – the first Jesuit pope, the first from the Southern Hemisphere, and possibly the last in the prophetic list – questions abound: was he the one described as Peter the Roman?

At first glance, the connection between Pope Francis and "Peter the Roman" appears tenuous. His given name is Jorge Mario Bergoglio, not Peter, and he hails from Buenos Aires, Argentina – far from Rome geographically. However, supporters of the prophecy's authenticity point to symbolic meanings and indirect associations, suggesting that the prophecy may not require literal fulfillment but rather metaphorical alignment.

One of the most frequently cited connections is Pope Francis's ethnic heritage. Though born in Argentina, Francis is the son of Italian immigrants, making him, in a certain sense, "Roman" by ancestry. Additionally, as the Bishop of Rome, every pope assumes a Roman identity in an ecclesiastical and spiritual sense. The name "Peter" could be a symbolic title, referring to the role of every pope as a successor of Saint Peter, the first Bishop of Rome and head of the early Church. In this interpretation, "Peter the Roman" simply describes the papal office itself, not a specific name or nationality.

Still, others argue that if the prophecy is meant to distinguish the final pope, it would require more specific and personal identifiers. In that case, Pope Francis's choice of the name Francis, honouring Saint Francis of Assisi, might at first seem unrelated. Yet Saint Francis was famously called to "rebuild the Church", and Pope Francis's entire pontificate has been marked by attempts to reform the Vatican bureaucracy, confront corruption, and renew the Church's focus on the poor and marginalized. His embrace of humility, simplicity, and mercy in a time of ecclesial and global turmoil aligns eerily with the "many tribulations" described in the prophecy. Indeed, Francis has led the Church through some of its most difficult recent trials: the ongoing sexual abuse crisis, deep theological divisions over moral and social issues, increasing persecution of Christians worldwide, and the internal tensions raised by calls for sodality and decentralisation. His pontificate has also coincided with significant political upheavals, the COVID-19 pandemic, war in Europe, and growing cultural hostility toward religion in the West. These could be interpreted by some as signs of the "final persecution of the Church" referenced in Malachy's final line.

Furthermore, Pope Francis has frequently warned against the growing threat of world conflict, moral decay, and spiritual lukewarmness. He has spoken of a Church in crisis, a "field hospital" among the wounded of the world, and a need for radical conversion. These themes echo the eschatological language of Malachy's last entry: a shepherd leading his flock "amid many tribulations."

And yet, the prophecy concludes with a catastrophic image: the destruction of the seven-hilled city – Rome – and the judgment of God. No such event has occurred during Francis's papacy, and while Rome has certainly been shaken by scandal and instability, it remains very much intact. Critics of the prophecy, and of its application to Pope Francis, note that such apocalyptic language is characteristic of medieval and Renaissance visionary literature, but should not be taken as a literal forecast of Rome's annihilation.

It's also worth noting that some researchers believe the final entry was not part of the original prophecy at all, but was added later or differs in style from the preceding mottos. This would call into question whether it applies to any particular pope at all, including Francis.

In conclusion, whether Pope Francis is “Peter the Roman” depends greatly on one’s interpretation of the prophecy itself. If taken literally, he does not bear the name Peter nor was he born in Rome. If interpreted symbolically, he may well fulfill the description as a Roman pontiff enduring tribulation while shepherding a troubled Church. His ethnic roots, reformist agenda, and papacy in a time of global instability provide compelling, if circumstantial, parallels to Malachy’s cryptic words. Nevertheless, the Church’s official stance remains clear: such prophecies are not part of divine revelation, and no one knows the day or the hour of the end. Whether or not Pope Francis was the final pope, the faithful are reminded to stay vigilant, anchored not in predictions, but in Christ.

Was Pope Benedict’s Resignation Invalid? The Argument for an Antipope Francis

In 2013, Pope Benedict XVI made an unprecedented move: he resigned the papacy under Canon 332 §2, citing his inability to fulfill the duties of the office due to declining strength. While canon law permits voluntary resignation, critics argue that Benedict resigned under external pressure — stemming from leaks, scandals, and allegations of a hidden “gay lobby” — thereby undermining the freedom essential to a valid resignation.

Believers to “benevacantism”, a subset of sedevacantism, suggest that if Benedict did not resign freely, he remained the true pontiff until his death in 2022. Accordingly, Francis would be an antipope, and all subsequent pontiffs — including Leo XIV — would be illegitimate.

Supporters cite high-profile traditionalist figures like Archbishop Carlo Maria Viganò, who has openly declared Benedict’s resignation “certainly invalid” and labelled Francis an antipope. Canon law mandates free consent for abdication, and if Benedict’s decision was compromised by coercion, then, these theorists argue, the resignation — and therefore Francis’s election — lack validity.

The 112th Pope and the Prophecy of St. Malachy: Interpreting the End of the Papal Line

The Prophecy of the Popes lists 112 cryptic Latin phrases, ending with “Petrus Romanus” (“Peter the Roman”), who leads during Tribulation and presides over the destruction of the seven-hilled city (Rome) before the Last Judgment. If Benedict XVI never ceased to be the true pope, that would push Francis out of the prophetic sequence, making Francis unaccounted for in the line and raising the question: Is Pope Leo XIV — the American-born Pope elected in 2025 — the 112th pope referenced by Malachy?

A wave of speculation followed Leo XIV’s election, fueled by Nostradamus-like theories that a pope named Leo would signal apocalyptic fulfillment. However, mainstream historians and scholars strongly dispute both the prophecy’s authenticity and its literal application, calling it a 16th-century forgery. Experts emphasise that the early entries align with historical popes because the prophecy was written post facto, not by St Malachy.

Furthermore, attempts to fit Pope Leo XIV to “Peter the Roman” falter when considering his name and background: his birth name is Robert Francis Prevost, and he is not Italian, but American-Peruvian. He lacks a clear Roman ancestry, making any prophetic link particularly tenuous.

Evaluation: Have We “Seen” the Last Pope?

- If you accept benevacantist logic, Francis is an antipope, Benedict remained the real pontiff, and Leo XIV could possibly be the 112th pope in Malachy’s prophecy.
- However, benevacantism and sedevacantism are fringe ideologies. The majority of theologians and canon lawyers view Benedict’s resignation as valid — supported by its clear statement, legal form, and wide ecclesial acceptance.
- The prophecy’s lack of early manuscript evidence, ambiguous later mottos, and failure to predict the post-1590 popes accurately undercut its credibility. Moreover, the Church itself rejects Malachy’s prophecy as non-authoritative — while “Petrus Romanus” continues to inspire apocalyptic speculation, it remains a private text, not a recognised revelation.

Conclusion

While intriguing, the theory that Francis was an antipope and Leo XIV is the true “Peter the Roman” hinges on accepting fringe interpretations of canon law and prophecy. The broader historical and canonical consensus holds that Benedict’s resignation was legitimate and the prophecy lacks substance as a predictive tool.

In short:

- The legitimate papal succession continues unbroken from Benedict to Francis to Leo XIV.
- The Prophecy of the Popes remains an apocryphal curiosity, not a blueprint for confirming the final pontiff.
- Therefore, we have likely not yet seen the “Petrus Romanus”, assuming the prophecy has any meaning at all — and we must await future developments, if one believes in its validity.

Volunteer Julie Connors

“My heart was completely broken. But after prayer ministry with Spiro, I felt like I was floating; that I had a brand-new heart; that holy angels were lifting me up!”

“My name is Julie this is my testimony on how God healed my broken heart, through water and spirit.

I had been feeling so heavy and burdened for a few weeks. I was in a dark place; my heart was completely broken, full of grief, and pain, so much hurt, I couldn't pull myself out of this feeling. Brother Spiro was having a healing meeting live on Zoom, and my sister texted that his meeting was on. I ignored her, but she kept texting me to get on. But I didn't even want to get up after how I was feeling.

Yet at the same time, I couldn't stop thinking about the meeting as there was a part of me saying, “Go on, get on!” So I ended up joining!

When I joined, my sister was praying with Spiro, and he was blessing the water for her kids to drink, and asking for everyone [in the live Zoom meeting] to do it at the same time, so I got a glass of water and Brother was guiding us all in prayer to bless the water; at the same time he prayed for all of our healing – of heart, mind, body, and soul – and we all drank the water after saying the prayers. Then Brother asked me about the time my kids were healed by the blessing of the water in 2024, asking me to tell the testimony of my kids' miraculous healing from measles.

He then asked me what brought me to this meeting tonight, so I told him how I was feeling but I was too embarrassed to tell him how broken my heart was... But I did tell him about the dark place I was in spiritually; that I couldn't pray, or go to Mass. I was feeling a very heavy burden and a lot of darkness around me. In my head, I was praying for God to tell Spiro about the pain in my heart and how broken it was...

Brother then moved on to someone else in the meeting to pray with – and they prayed some deliverance prayers together, to unYoke from the enemy. I said these prayers with them, still praying to God to let Spiro know how I was feeling deep inside about my broken heart. Then Spiro came back to me – it was like he knew what I was feeling. I didn't have to tell him; he put all the prayers I wanted him to say into prayer. God was working in the spirit!

Spiro knew I was asking God for the healing of my heart. I was crying out to God for the healing I couldn't put into words but the spirit of God worked between me and brother Spiro.

Brother Spiro then guided me through a special prayer, asking God to send his holy angels to collect the fragmented pieces of my broken heart; and as I was repeating these prayers, lying in my bed, with my hand on my heart, my eyes closed – it felt like I was being lifted up from my bed, like I was floating. It was like the holy angels he had called upon were lifting me up. I felt no pain in my heart; it was fully healed; like my heart was brand-new! I'd never experienced anything like it before! And the joy, the peace, the happiness, no pain, no heaviness, no darkness – it was beautiful! God had healed me through water and spirit!

God works in marvellous ways – after the blessing of the water, Brother could have finished with me, but he didn't. After doing the prayers of un-yoking with the enemy with another sister, he came back to me... God knew what he was doing! He had first washed me clean with the water, then delivered me with the prayers of the unYoking, so the enemy had to flee; and then we prayed the healing prayer for my broken heart – so I was washed, cleansed, delivered from all darkness, then healed from a broken heart! I was healed, and I give God all the glory and praise, and thanks for His great works, and miracles!

God knows what we need and He sends people such as Spiro to help us, so I thank God for Spiro and the great works and healings he does in God's name. And it doesn't stop there! A week after, there was a Volunteers' Meeting with Spiro and the Jesus4UsAll.com volunteers on Zoom. I was so confident telling the group my testimony. I was so happy I didn't feel embarrassed to say that I had a broken heart. God had given me a miraculous healing! A few more weeks passed, and I was doing so well, but then the enemy was trying to steal my healing and joy. My phone broke and I had no access to prayer meetings; everything was going wrong. I was feeling down, sadness, heaviness – it was like I was losing everything again. I was overthinking; going through something with a loved one, feeling worried, confused, I couldn't focus on God. I was waking up in the middle of the night, experiencing shivers. I knew there was something going on. On 17 May 2025, I woke up with a pain in my heart.

I cried out to God, saying I don't want to go down this road again. I don't want to feel the pain or grief in my heart. A scripture came to mind. Psalm 34:18 "The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit." It was a confirmation that the Lord wanted to heal me; I was prompted by the Spirit to reach out to someone. I had got a new phone two days previously; I texted Brother Spiro to tell him I got a new phone and to pray for me. I then texted Brother Nicholas, asking him, "Can we pray?" There was this waking at night and shivers I kept experiencing. I wanted someone such as Brother Spiro or Nicholas to reach out to me as I was feeling like my heart was breaking all over again. An hour after I sent the texts, I was feeling like something was happening. God was at work! I asked God, please help me! Brother Spiro got back to me. I was so relieved to see his text; so we prayed the same prayer to the angels to collect the fragments of my heart as before, and immediately I was brand-new again - no pain, no hurt, no sadness. I felt a relief; a new heart. I was so happy. God pulled me out of the darkness and got Brother Spiro to get in touch with me. I got ready for Mass and cried with joy to God for what he's doing for me. He's so, so good all the time! The enemy had been using a loved one to get to me, to steal my healing, my joy, my happiness. Because, from time to time, the enemy will use those closest to us to take our focus off God. I'm at my best when I'm walking with God, when I'm in his presence. God is always leading me back to Spiro and Jesus4UsAll.com ministry; where I'm the 'Julie with Christ' Julie. We have to always listen to the Spirit – it's so easy to be fooled by the enemy. And we can't do it on our own. God fights our battles. God has the victory. We have to open our hearts to God and let him in, to move out the enemy! I want to thank my Heavenly Father, and my Lord Jesus Christ, for everything they are doing in my life; for always saving me. He is my Father, my guide, my protector, my healer, my provider – he is my everything! I'm nothing without God and Jesus Christ! In Christ, I can overcome anything! I want to give Jesus all the praise, glory and honour! Most of all, I want to thank Him for Brother Spiro, Jesus4UsAll.com Ministry, and for all my brothers and sisters in Christ.

If God can do this for me, I'm sure he wants to do it for you! We are all His children. He is our Father. He's the same God today, yesterday and tomorrow. I'm sharing what God has done for me, so He can help you! There are so many broken hearts in this world that He wants to heal. Come to God and let Him take over. It is written, "Ask, and you shall receive" (Matthew 7:7). Jesus encourages all mankind to truly seek the Kingdom of God. He promises that if we sincerely ask for God's mercy, grace, and salvation, we will truly receive it, according to our faith! "Come to me, all who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28) This is what God did for me; He gave me rest. He took away my heavy burden. He is the Truth, the Way and the Life. What God says He will do, He will do. Believe, trust and hope, the Lord will see you through. God bless you all, my brothers and sisters in Christ."

VOLUNTEER MARILYN'S TESTIMONY

DOUBLE HEALING...
SAME PRAYER, SAME NIGHT, TWO HEARTS HEALED...

As Spiro was guiding Julie through the Healing heart prayer live on Zoom, Marilyn, just entered home from work, about to feed her hungry cats. As she listened, repeating the prayers that seemed so pertinent... SHE TOO WAS HEALED!

"I was suffering from a break-up. I had no idea the relationship was going to end, because it had been loving and supportive. I felt a deep sense of grief and I couldn't shake it off. This had been going on for about a year-and-a-half, and I had moments where I would despair and feel really down. I had also lost my mother a year prior to this, which had been heartbreaking. One day [in May 2025] I came back from work and logged into Spiro's Live healing service on Zoom. I heard Spiro say that he was going to pray for the healing of Julie's broken heart. I had never heard him pray for a broken heart before, so I was curious. I knew I needed this prayer the moment he said it.

While listening, I was trying to open a can of cat food to feed my cats because they were very excitable and demanding their dinner the moment I'd stepped in from work.

I then heard Spiro say, "If you want to join in with the prayers, then put your hand on your heart and repeat the words I am praying for Julie." I was trying to open the cat food with one hand, and put the other on my heart, but it was difficult, so I removed my hand from my heart, and started to repeat the prayer while rushing to empty the cat food into their bowls.

Then I heard Spiro start talking about "fragments of the heart" and that we were missing these fragments when we had a broken heart.

He explained that the fragments were with the other person and we needed to claim them back. I thought, "Oh my God, I really need this prayer". I had never heard anyone praying about claiming fragments of the heart back before. I thought, "This prayer is for me!" This is the prayer I have been waiting for to heal my heart! I need to do this prayer properly." So I decided to put down the cat food and instead put both hands on my heart. I was thinking... maybe I will gradually start to feel better after the prayer, over the coming weeks or months.

I continued saying the prayer, repeating Spiro's words, to the end. To my amazement, as soon as I finished saying it, I immediately felt something lift off me. I don't even know how to describe it. Suddenly I was smiling and felt joy filling my body. I was astonished and started thanking God. I just could not stop smiling. I felt really happy. I realised God did not want me to feel like that. I knew those unpleasant feelings had gone and the fragments of my heart had returned. I could hear how wonderful Julie was feeling too and I was delighted for her heart healing. Since that day I no longer have the melancholy, sadness or feelings of grief I had been experiencing before saying that special prayer. Thank you Jesus."

PRAYER TO HEAL THE BROKENHEARTED

This is the prayer Spiro prayed with Julie during the Live Zoom Healing Service

Lord, God Almighty, I pray for you to heal my broken heart. Lord, as I say this prayer, let it be Your power that flows to touch and heal my heart. Lord, I pray that Your holy angels come to surround me. Heavenly Father, let Your holy Seraphims minister to me as I pray, because, Lord, You are the one who comes to take away sadness and sorrow. Lord, take it all away from me now. Bring me joy and gladness instead. Lord, in Your mercy, hear my prayer.

[Say this, while placing a hand or both hands over your heart]
Dear Jesus, come and sit on the throne of my heart, be my only Lord, God and Saviour. I give You permission to drive out every idol from me now. Let nothing within me compete with You, including sadness and sorrow - they are not my god; I renounce them now in the Name of Jesus; I reject them, I rebuke them - they will not steal the joy of my Lord. Dear Jesus, I give You all my sadness and sorrow; replace them now with joy and gladness. Fill my heart with Your peace, fill it with Your joy. Let the joy of my Lord be my strength. Touch and heal my heart. Send Your holy angels to wherever there is a fragment of my broken heart, and get them to bring back all the pieces from wherever they are, to make my heart whole again, to make me whole again. Thank You, Jesus.

Lord, I thank You for Your presence. You are the one who came to bind up the brokenhearted. Thank You that my heart is whole again, that it has been brought back together. Thank You that my heart is healed, whole and brand-new, thank You, Jesus. Praise You, Jesus. Love you, Jesus.

THANK YOU
JESUS

Psalm 34:18 "The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit."

Psalm 147:3 "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds."

THE POWER OF PRAYER. GOD HEARS AND ANSWERS!

Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another so that you may be healed. A prayer of a righteous person, when it is brought about, can accomplish much. James 5:16

Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father who is in Heaven. For where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst. Matthew 18:19-29

Keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. Matthew 7:7

I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people – for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. Timothy 2:1-2

The St. Benedict Exorcism Prayer

In the name of God the Father Almighty,
Through the intercession of St. Benedict,
I invoke the power of the Holy Cross and
The strength of Christ to cast out any evil
And to deliver me from all demonic influence.

May the Cross of Christ be my light,
And may the dragon never be my guide.
Begone, Satan!
Do not tempt me with your lies.
What you offer is evil;
Drink your own poison.

I take refuge in the Sacred Heart of Jesus
And the Immaculate Heart of Mary.
Lord Jesus, through Your Holy Cross,
Protect me, my family, and my home
From all harm and evil.

By the merits of the passion, death,
And resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ,
I command all unclean spirits to depart
In the name of the Father,
And of the Son,
And of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

We would like to welcome you all to our upcoming Healing Services every last Thursday of the month

DEDICATION TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart

Most Holy Virgin Mary, tender Mother of men, to fulfil the desires of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the request of the Vicar of Your Son on earth, we consecrate ourselves and our families to your Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart, O Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, and we recommend to You, all the people of our country and all the world. Please accept our consecration, dearest Mother, and use us as You wish to accomplish Your designs in the world. O Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, and Queen of the World, rule over us, together with the Sacred Heart of Jesus Christ, Our King. Save us from the spreading flood of modern paganism; kindle in our hearts and homes the love of purity, the practice of a virtuous life, an ardent zeal for souls, and a desire to pray the Rosary more faithfully. We come with confidence to You, O Throne of Grace and Mother of Fair Love. Inflame us with the same Divine Fire which has inflamed Your own Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart. Make our hearts and homes Your shrine, and through us, make the Heart of Jesus, together with Your heart, rule and triumph in every home. Amen. (by Pope Pius XII)

“IN THE END, MY IMMACULATE HEART WILL TRIUMPH.”

Remembering Fatima 13 June

The Second apparition of Our Lady of Fatima

The 13th June is the feast day of Portuguese-born Saint Anthony of Padua, a great feast day of celebration in Portugal, but there was still a crowd ignoring the street festivities and instead gathering in the Cova where the children saw the Blessed Virgin Mary a month earlier.

Preceding the second apparition, the seers, Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta, once again saw a great brilliance, which they called 'lightning'. Some people in the group of 50 spectators noticed that the light of the sunlight dimmed during the first few minutes of the conversation. Others said that the top of the budding holm oak bent down, as if under the weight of something. During Our Lady's conversation with the seers, some of the bystanders heard a whispering, like the humming of a bee.

Lucia: What does Your Grace wish of me?

Our Lady: I want you to come here on the 13th of next month, to pray the rosary every day, and to learn to read. I shall later say what I want. (Lucia asked for the healing of a sick person.)

Our Lady: If he converts, he will be healed within the year.

Lucia: I would like to ask you to take us to heaven.

Our Lady: Yes, I shall take Jacinta and Francisco soon, but you will remain here for some time yet. Jesus wishes to use you in order to make me known and loved. He wishes to establish devotion to my Immaculate Heart in the world. I promise salvation to those who embrace it; and these souls will be beloved of God like flowers arranged by me to adorn His throne.

Lucia: Will I stay here alone?

Our Lady: No, daughter. Does that make you suffer much? Do not be dismayed. I will never forsake you. My Immaculate Heart shall be your refuge and the road that shall lead you to God.

Lucia writes, "Upon saying these last words, she opened her hands, and for the second time she communicated to us the reflection of that intense light. We could see ourselves in it, as if immersed in God. Jacinta and Francisco seemed to be in the part of this light that went up toward heaven, and I in the part that was cast toward the ground. In front of Our Lady's right hand there was a heart encircled by thorns that seemed to pierce it [note added by Jesus4UsAll.com: we couldn't help noticing that in June 1973 St Agnes's left hand began bleeding profusely, causing her much pain; and later in July, the right hand of Our Lady's Akita statue developed a bleeding wound - could these be caused by the thorns encircling the Immaculate Heart of Mary?].

We understood that it was the Immaculate Heart of Mary, insulted by the sins of humanity and which desires reparation."

When this vision ceased, the Lady, still surrounded by the light that she radiated, rose from the little tree and glided toward the east until she disappeared completely. Several persons who were closer noticed that the buds at the top of the holm oak were bent in the same direction, as if they had been drawn by the Lady's clothes. They returned to their usual position only some hours later.

Our Lady also gave the seers the Fatima Prayer to be included in the Rosary:

"O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy."

[Note: the institution of the five Saturdays devotion came via an apparition on 10 December 1925]

Jacinta, Lucia, Francisco

13 June 1929, The Holy Trinity and Our Lady of Fatima appear to Sr. Lucia in Tuy, Spain

In June 1929, in an apparition of the Holy Trinity with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Jesus expressed his sadness to Sr. Lucia that the messages of Fatima had not been heeded by successive Popes, similar to King Louis XIV of France and his successive kings, rejecting the messages of the Sacred Heart.

Jesus said to Sr. Lucia: "They did not want to heed My request! Like the King of France, they will repent and do it, but it will be late. Russia will have already spread its errors throughout the world, provoking wars and persecutions of the Church: the Holy Father will have much to suffer."

Sr. Lucia adds: "I could see a chalice and a large host suspended in the air, on to which drops of blood were falling from the face of Jesus and from the wound in His side. These drops ran down on to the host and fell into the chalice. Under the left arm of the cross, large letters, as if of crystal clear water which ran down upon the altar, formed the words: 'Grace and Mercy.'"

From July 1917, Our Lady of Fatima gave a 'secret' to the seers, of three distinct parts.

The first part was a vision of hell; the second part, was about war (Our Lady tells the seers that World War I would end, but that another great war would begin – World War II would begin in 1939) and a request for the people of Russia to convert; and the third part, revealed an angel over the earth with a flaming sword.

The third part was not revealed for a long time. Bishop da Silva had ordered Sr. Lucia to put the third secret in writing. Sr. Lucia then wrote down the secret and sealed it in an envelope not to be opened until 1960. She designated the year 1960 because she thought that "by then, it will appear clearer." The text of the third secret was officially released by Pope John Paul II in 2000.

1944: The third part of the Third Secret, Sr. Lucia writes from Tuy 3-1-1944

Before giving the sealed envelope containing the third part of "The Secret" to the then-Bishop of Leiria-Fatima, Sr. Lucia wrote on the outside envelope that it could be opened only after 1960, either by the Patriarch of Lisbon or the Bishop of Leiria.

Archbishop Bertone therefore asked: "Why only after 1960? Was it Our Lady who fixed that date?"

Sr Lucia replied: "It was not Our Lady. I fixed the date because I had the intuition that before 1960 it would not be understood, but that only later would it be understood. Now it can be better understood. I wrote down what I saw; however it was not for me to interpret it, but for the Pope."

The third part of the secret revealed at the Cova da Iria - Fatima, on 13 July 1917:

"I write in obedience to you, my God, who commands me to do so through his Excellency the Bishop of Leiria and through your Most Holy Mother and mine.

After the two parts which I have already explained, at the left of Our Lady and a little above, we saw an Angel with a flaming sword in his left hand; flashing, it gave out flames that looked as though they would set the world on fire; but they died out in contact with the splendour that Our Lady radiated towards him from her right hand: pointing to the earth with his right hand, the Angel cried out in a loud voice: "Penance, Penance, Penance!"

And we saw in an immense light that is God: “something similar to how people appear in a mirror when they pass in front of it”, a Bishop dressed in White, “we had the impression that it was the Holy Father”. Other Bishops, Priests, men and women Religious going up a steep mountain, at the top of which there was a big Cross of rough-hewn trunks as of a cork-tree with the bark; before reaching there the Holy Father passed through a big city half in ruins and half trembling with halting step, afflicted with pain and sorrow, he prayed for the souls of the corpses he met on his way; having reached the top of the mountain, on his knees at the foot of the big Cross he was killed by a group of soldiers who fired bullets and arrows at him, and in the same way there died one after another the other Bishops, Priests, men and women Religious, and various lay people of different ranks and positions. Beneath the two arms of the Cross there were two Angels each with a crystal aspersorium in his hand, in which they gathered up the blood of the Martyrs and with it sprinkled the souls that were making their way to God.

1960: People were expecting to hear or read the revelation of the Third part of the Secret of Fatima, but nothing was revealed to the public. No Pope was willing to share the contents of the letter. Many believe that because the third part wasn't disclosed, Heaven sent forth the messages of Akita, 13 years later in 1973.

June 1973-1975, The Apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary to Sr. Agnes Sasagawa in Akita, Japan

The extraordinary events in Japan began on 12 June, 1973, when Sr. Agnes saw brilliant mysterious rays emanate suddenly from the tabernacle. The same thing happened on each of the two days that followed.

On 28 June 1973, a cross-shaped wound appeared on the inside left hand of Sr. Agnes. It bled profusely and caused her much pain.

On 6 July, Sr. Agnes heard a voice coming from the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the chapel where she was praying. The statue of Our Lady of All Nations was carved from a single block of wood from a Katsura tree and is three feet tall. On the same day, a few of the sisters noticed drops of blood flowing from the statue's right hand.

On four occasions, this act of blood flow repeated itself. The wound in the statue's hand remained until 29 September, when it disappeared. On 29 September, the day the wound on the statue disappeared, the sisters noticed the statue had now begun to “sweat”, especially on the forehead and neck.

On 3 August, Sr. Agnes received a second message.

On 13 October (exactly 56 years after the last message of Our Lady of Fatima, on 13 October 1917), Sr. Agnes received a final third message. Two years later on 4 January 1975, the statue of the Blessed Virgin began to weep. It continued to weep at intervals for the next six years and eight months. It wept on 101 occasions.

The significance of THREE

As the Jesus4UsAll.com editorial team was writing about Our Lady's messages of Fatima, the revelation of her Immaculate Heart and similarities with the messages of Akita, we noticed a striking pattern of three. Both the number 3, or things that came in threes.

Starting with Fatima, there were three seers, and there were three parts to the Secret. Our Lady warns that if her messages were not heeded, there would be three scourges: war, famine, and persecutions of the Church.

Moving on to Akita, there were three messages which occurred in 1973. There was a statue of Our Lady of All Nations, 3ft high, carved in wood. One message talks about the three nails fixing us to the cross – poverty, chastity and obedience. On 3 August 1973, which many believe is the undisclosed third part of the secret of Fatima, Our Lady warns that fire will fall down from Heaven, when the angel with a Flaming sword in his left hand comes set to set the world alight and cries out in a loud voice three words: “Penance, Penance, Penance!” [dictionary definition of penance: punishment inflicted on oneself as an outward expression of repentance for wrongdoing.] Finally, Our Lady gave a three-part-instruction for prayer, penance and courage.

Remembering Fatima 13 July

This month we recall some very important lessons, firstly the existence of hell and the fact that many go there, but more importantly, Our Lady gives us a solution to help save people from the fires of hell.

The Third apparition of Our Lady of Fatima.

Mr. Marto, father of Jacinta and Francisco, noticed that when the third apparition began, a small grayish cloud hovered over the holm oak, the sunlight diminished, and a cool breeze blew over the mountain range, despite it being the height of summer. He also heard something like flies inside an empty jug. The seers saw the customary glare, and then Our Lady over the holm oak.

Lucia: What does Your Grace wish of me?

Our Lady: I want you to come here on the 13th of next month and to continue to pray the Rosary every day in honour of Our Lady of the Rosary, in order to obtain peace for the world and the end of the war, for she alone can be of any avail.

Lucia: I would like to ask you to tell us who you are and to perform a miracle so everyone will believe that Your Grace appears to us.

Our Lady: Continue to come here every month. In October, I will tell you who I am and what I wish, and I will perform a miracle that everyone shall see so as to believe.

Lucia then made a number of requests for conversions, cures, and other graces. Our Lady recommended the constant recitation of the rosary; thus they would obtain those graces during the year.

Then Our Lady went on: "Sacrifice yourselves for sinners and say many times, especially when you make a sacrifice, 'O Jesus, this is for love of Thee, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.'"

'The Secret'

It is in July 1917, during the third apparition of Our Lady, that the Blessed Virgin Mary reveals 'the secret' of Fatima to the children - in three parts.

Part 1 - Vision of Hell

When Our Lady talked about hell to the children, she opened her hands as she had during the two previous apparitions. Lucia described what happened. "The rays of light seemed to penetrate the earth, and we saw as it were a sea of fire."

"Our Lady showed us a great sea of fire which seemed to be under the earth. Plunged in this fire were demons and souls in human form, like transparent burning embers, all blackened or burnished bronze, floating about in the conflagration, now raised into the air by the flames that issued from within themselves together with great clouds of smoke, now falling back on every side like sparks in a huge fire, without weight or equilibrium, and amid shrieks and groans of pain and despair, which horrified us and made us tremble with fear."

The demons could be distinguished by their terrifying and repulsive likeness to frightful and unknown animals, all black and transparent. This vision lasted but an instant. How can we ever be grateful enough to our kind heavenly Mother, who had already prepared us by promising, in the first Apparition, to take us to heaven. Otherwise, I think we would have died of fear and terror."

In the book The True Story of Fatima, author Father John de Marchi recounts how Jacinta's father Ti Marto witnessed the children's actions in the Cova da Iria that day. He remembered "that Lucia gasped in sudden horror, that her face was white as death, and that all who were there heard her cry in terror to the Virgin Mother, whom she called by name," writes Father de Marchi. "The children were looking at their Lady in terror, speechless, and unable to plead for relief from the scene they had witnessed." (...from NCR)

Part 2 – Warning of the chastisement (World War) – and how to avoid it

The children then looked up at Our Lady, who said to them so kindly and so sadly:

"You have seen hell where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them, God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If what I say to you is done, many souls will be saved and there will be peace."

"The war [World War I] is going to end: but if people do not cease offending God, a worse one will break out during the Pontificate of Pius XI [World War II]. When you see a night illumined by an unknown light, know that this is the great sign given you by God that He is about to punish the world for its crimes, by means of war, famine, and persecutions of the Church and of the Holy Father. [EWTN note: a strange light occurred on 28 January, 1938]

"To prevent this [World War II], I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, and the Communion of reparation on the First Saturdays. If my requests are heeded, Russia will be converted, and there will be peace; if not, she will spread her errors throughout the world [Communism], causing wars and persecutions of the Church."

'The good will be martyred; the Holy Father will have much to suffer; various nations will be annihilated. In the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, and she shall be converted, and a period of peace will be granted to the world. In Portugal, the dogma of the faith will always be preserved." Then, Our Lady again spoke:

"Do not tell this to anyone. But you may tell Francisco about it."

"When you say the Rosary, after each mystery, pray: 'O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to heaven, especially those who are in most need of Thy mercy.'" "An instant of silence followed, and I asked, "Is there nothing else you wish of me?"

"No. Today I want nothing else of you." And, as usual, she began to rise toward the east until she disappeared in the vast distance of the firmament.

Part 3 – The Angel with the Flaming Sword

Sister Lucia revealed both parts 1 and 2 to the public in 1941. But this third part, commonly called the 'Third secret', which Our Lady gave to the children for the Pope, was omitted in her Memoirs.

She wrote this third part in January 1944, at the request of the Bishop of Leiria, Dom José Alves Correia da Silva. On 26 June 2000, in accordance with specific instructions from His Holiness, Pope John Paul II, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith released the text of the Third Secret. This is the Vatican's official English translation of the text of the Third Secret as published on the Vatican website:

J.M.J.

The third part of the secret revealed at the Cova da Iria-Fátima, on 13 July 1917.

I write in obedience to you, my God, who command me to do so through his Excellency the Bishop of Leiria and through your Most Holy Mother and mine.

After the two parts which I have already explained, at the left of Our Lady and a little above, we saw an Angel with a flaming sword in his left hand; flashing, it gave out flames that looked as though they would set the world on fire; but they died out in contact with the splendour that Our Lady radiated towards him from her right hand: pointing to the earth with his right hand, the Angel cried out in a loud voice: ‘Penance, Penance, Penance!’ And we saw in an immense light that is God: ‘something similar to how people appear in a mirror when they pass in front of it’ a Bishop dressed in White ‘we had the impression that it was the Holy Father’. Other Bishops, Priests, men and women Religious going up a steep mountain, at the top of which there was a big Cross of rough-hewn trunks as of a cork-tree with the bark; before reaching there the Holy Father passed through a big city half in ruins and half trembling with halting step, afflicted with pain and sorrow, he prayed for the souls of the corpses he met on his way; having reached the top of the mountain, on his knees at the foot of the big Cross he was killed by a group of soldiers who fired bullets and arrows at him, and in the same way there died one after another the other Bishops, Priests, men and women Religious, and various lay people of different ranks and positions. Beneath the two arms of the Cross there were two Angels each with a crystal aspersorium in his hand, in which they gathered up the blood of the Martyrs and with it sprinkled the souls that were making their way to God.

The effects of the message and seeing Mary’s sad face on the seers

In the July apparition, the Blessed Virgin had told the children, “the Holy Father will have much to suffer.” Jacinta developed a special love for the Pope and always included him in her prayers and sacrifices. When she was in the prison cell of Ourem with the other two seers, surrounded by hardened criminals and threatened with torture and death by Masonic state officials who opposed the explosion of devotion provoked by the apparitions, she prayed: “O my Jesus, this is for love of you, for the conversion of sinners, for the Holy Father and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.”

Jacinta grew to love the Holy Father and to sense his spiritual identification with Christ in his headship over the Church. She intuited that the Pope shares uniquely in Jesus’ agony over sin and, through that knowledge, gave herself to heroic acts of penance to save sinners from hell and thereby console both Jesus and the Holy Father. Love, loyalty, and dedication to the Pope are essential components of the Fatima message from the beginning.

On 26 June 2000, when the Vatican released the Third Secret of Fatima, which deals with an attack on the life of the Holy Father, the relationship of Fatima and the Papacy became all the more apparent. (We instantly recall the assassination attempt on Pope John Paul II in St Peter’s Square on 13 May 1981.)

Francisco, like Jacinta, attained heroic charity by following the call of the Blessed Virgin. Contemplating the sorrow on the face of Mary during the July apparition, he came to understand that even the loss of one person in the fires of hell causes untold agony in the heart of Christ. This knowledge propelled him to console Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament.

Lucia wrote: “Francisco was a boy of few words. Whenever we prayed or offered sacrifices, he preferred to go apart and hide, even from Jacinta and me.

“If I asked him: ‘Francisco, which do you like better – to console Our Lord or to convert sinners – so that no more souls will go to hell?’

“‘I would rather console Our Lord,’ he said. ‘Didn’t you notice how sad Our Lady was that last month when she said that people must not offend Our Lord any more for He is already much offended? I would like to console Our Lord and after that, to convert sinners.’”

What we can do: Offerings and Sacrifice

Along with praying a daily Rosary one way for peace and to keep on the path to heaven is sacrifice.

In ‘A Pathway Under the Gaze of Mary’, we learn Sr Lucia wrote to the Bishop of Leiria what the Lord told her.

“This is now the penance that our good Lord asks: The sacrifice that all people have to impose on themselves is to lead a life of righteousness in the observance of His Law, and to do this to make clear the way for souls, because many judge the meaning of the word penance in great austerity; they do not feel the strength and pleasure to do it and get discouraged in a life of weakness and sin.”

The Lord told her: “The sacrifice of each one required is the fulfillment of their own duty and observance of My Law; it is Penance that is now demanded and asked.”

Sr Lucy reminded us of the Sacrifice Prayer taught by Our Lady at Fatima.

PRAYER:

O My Jesus, I offer this for love of Thee, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

And we can also add the Morning Offering prayer to offer up all we do and go through for the day.

PRAYER:

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, for the salvation of souls, the reparation of sins, the reunion of all Christians, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Doctor of the Church St Thérèse of Lisieux shows that little sacrifices have a great impact — little sacrifices in our daily duties, as the World Apostolate of Fatima also notes. These simple acts, like being charitable to a rude person, or taking care of a sick child, can resonate with graces for others and ourselves.

CONSECRATION TO OUR LADY'S IMMACULATE HEART

In July 1917, Our Lady told the children that World War I would end. But there would be another war (a chastisement) if her warning was not heeded. And indeed World War II was initiated near the end of Pius XI's reign in 1939.

However, there was a preventative: The Rosary. It obviously was not taken to heart by enough people. But it still remains the answer to peace today.

Our Lady gave another preventative at that time too. Consecration.

Russia to be consecrated to her Immaculate Heart:

"To prevent this, I shall come to the world to ask that Russia be consecrated to my Immaculate Heart, and I shall ask that on the First Saturday of every month Communions of reparation be made in atonement for the sins of the world. If my wishes are fulfilled, Russia will be converted and there will be peace; if not, then Russia will spread her errors throughout the world, bringing new wars and persecution of the Church; the good will be martyred and the Holy Father will have much to suffer; certain nations will be annihilated. But in the end my Immaculate Heart will triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, and she will be converted, and the world will enjoy a period of peace..."

The Consecration (from National Catholic Register)

Though the answer was given and verified, there remains controversy about this in some places. Now is not the place to go into the details except for these: The first consecration was made by Venerable Pius XII on May 13, 1942, the silver anniversary of Fatima's first apparition, but was invalid because it wasn't done in union with the bishops of the world. Eventually, the consecration was made at St. Peter's by St. John Paul II on 25 March, 1984. Sister Lucia wrote very clearly this consecration was accepted by heaven.

Indispensable Consecration to Mary and the Linking of the Two Hearts: The Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. In fulfillment of her promise at Fatima on 13 July 1917, Our Lady appeared to Sr Lucia in Tuy, Spain on 13 June 1929. The Holy Trinity was visibly present. She told Lucia:

"The moment has come in which God asks the Holy Father, in union with all the Bishops of the world, to make the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, promising to save it by this means. There are so many souls whom the Justice of God condemns for sins committed against me, that I have come to ask reparation: sacrifice yourself for this intention and pray."

In A Pathway Under the Gaze of Mary, it is revealed that in 1936 Sr Lucia wrote to her confessor, "Intimately I have spoken to Our Lord about the subject, and not too long ago I asked Him why He did not just convert Russia without the Holy Father making the consecration.

IN THE END MY IMMACULATE
HEART WILL TRIUMPH

Our Lord replied:

'Because I want my whole Church to acknowledge this consecration as a triumph of the Immaculate heart of Mary, in order to later extend its cult, and to place this devotion to the Immaculate Heart alongside the devotion to My Sacred Heart.'

Sr Lucia added, "Pray much for the Holy Father. He will do it, but it will be too late. Nevertheless, the Immaculate Heart of Mary will save Russia. It has been entrusted to her."

Our Lady of All Nations statue, Akita

Addressing Pope John Paul II in a letter dated 12 May 1982, Sr Lucia wrote, "The third part of the secret is a symbolic revelation, referring to this part of the Message, conditioned by whether we accept or not what the Message itself asks of us: If my requests are heeded, Russia will be converted, and there will be peace; if not, she will spread her errors throughout the world, etc.

"Since we did not heed this appeal of the Message, we see that it has been fulfilled, Russia has invaded the world with her errors. And if we have not yet seen the complete fulfillment of the final part of this prophecy, we are going towards it little by little with great strides. If we do not reject the path of sin, hatred, revenge, injustice, violations of the rights of the human person, immorality and violence, etc."

"And," Sr Lucia continued, "let us not say that it is God who is punishing us in this way; on the contrary, it is people themselves who are preparing their own punishment. In his kindness, God warns us and calls us to the right path, while respecting the freedom he has given us; hence, people are responsible."

What is our responsibility?

The 13 July 1917 message of Our Lady tells us:

- Pray the Rosary daily
- Make Sacrifices and pray for sinners
- Make the Five First Saturday devotions ("communions of reparation")
- Consecrate (ourselves, our families, our nations) to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Our Lady of All Nations prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Father, send now Your Spirit over the earth. Let the Holy Spirit live in the hearts of all nations that they may be preserved from degeneration, disaster and war. May The Lady of All Nations, who once was Mary, be our advocate. Amen.

Remembering Fatima 13 & 19 August 1917

Fourth Apparition of Our Lady at Fatima 13 AUGUST 1917

On 13 August, the day the fourth apparition was to take place, the seers were not at Cova da Iria. They had been abducted nine miles away from the apparition site by the mayor of Vila Nova de Ourém, who attempted to force from them "The Secret" revealed in the apparition of 13 July. The children held fast despite the mayor's bribes, imprisoning them with criminals, interrogating them separately, and threatening to plunge them in boiling oil.

Meanwhile, at Cova da Iria, thunder, followed by lightning, was heard at the usual time. The spectators noticed a small white cloud that hovered over the holm oak for a few minutes. Phenomena of coloration were observed on the faces of the people, the clothing, the trees, and the ground. Our Lady had certainly come, but she had not found the seers.

The "trial" of the kidnapped children, however, continued for two days, to the consternation of their families. But, finally, on the Feast of the Assumption, 15 August, the mayor had them driven back to Fatima.

On 19 August, at about four o'clock in the afternoon, Lucia was with Francisco and another cousin at Valinhos, a property belonging to one of her uncles, when the atmospheric changes that preceded the apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria began to occur: a sudden cooling of the temperature and a waning of the sun.

Feeling that something supernatural was approaching and enveloping them, Lucia sent for Jacinta, who arrived in time to see Our Lady appear - heralded as before by a bright light - over a holm oak slightly larger than the one at Cova da Iria.

Lucia: What does Your Grace wish of me?

Our Lady: I want you to continue to go to Cova da Iria on the 13th of each month and to continue to pray the Rosary every day. In the last month, I will perform a miracle for all to believe.

Then Our Lady's face became more serious, and even upset.

Our Lady: If they had not taken you to Ourém, the miracle would have been even greater.

Lucia: What does Your Grace want done with the money that the people leave at Cova da Iria?

Our Lady: Have two portable stands made. You and Jacinta with two other girls will be dressed in white and carry one of them, and let Francisco carry the other one with three other boys, also to be dressed in white. The portable stands are for the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. The money that is left over should be contributed to the chapel that they shall build.

Lucia: I would like to ask you for the healing of some sick persons.

Our Lady: Yes, I will cure some during the year.

Becoming sadder, she recommended anew the practice of mortification, saying lastly, "Pray, pray much, and sacrifice for sinners, for many souls go to hell because there is no one to sacrifice and pray for them."

As usual, she then began to rise toward the east. The seers cut boughs off the tree over which Our Lady had appeared to them and took them home. The boughs gave off a uniquely sweet fragrance.

Augustine's Holy Spirit Prayer

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my thoughts may all be holy.
Act in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my work, too, may be holy.
Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit,
That I love but what is holy.
Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit,
To defend all that is holy.
Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit,
That I always may be holy. AMEN

I loved You! You were within me, but I was outside, and it was there that I searched for You. In my unloveliness I plunged into the lovely things which You created.
You were with me, but I was not with You. Created things kept me from You; yet if they had not been in You, they would not have been at all. You called, You shouted, and You broke through my deafness. You flashed, You shone, and You dispelled my blindness.
You breathed your fragrance on me; I drew in breath and now I pant for You. I have tasted You, now I hunger and thirst for more.
You touched me, and I burned for Your peace.' Confessions, Book X

PRESENTING JESUS4USALL.COM's MISSION AND CAUSES

BE PART OF OUR JESUS4USALL.COM MISSION

Our mission is about reaching out to hearts with the love of Christ and the power in his name. Together, we can make a real impact changing lives for the better; as the many, many testimonies of healing, deliverance, conversion and answered prayer of intentions.

Every offering of time, talent, or treasure matters. No matter how small or how big, once it is brought into the blessed hands of Our Lord, His graces and blessings bring a rich harvest, just like the multiplication of the fish and the loaves.

We're building a vibrant hub for Christians and Christian community and our Causes and Missions are an integral part of it. This is why we would like your help; imagine contributing in some way, to every testimony, every prayer, every sermon and healing service, the magazine, the Academy. When you join this mission, your contribution, no matter how small, has helped someone get their prayer answered, has helped someone receive a miracle. This is our mission and our cause, and we would like to invite you to join.

We're creating something truly special here through the inspiration of the Creator who has called us and commissioned us to be an End Times Ministry. A mission for our days; a vibrant platform dedicated to the fivefold Ministry of the Church. Bringing people from every walk of life and from every part of the world; bringing the message of salvation, healing and deliverance to everyone. We are all disciples of Christ.

We make known the knowledge of God's love and his redeeming grace given to us, through our Lord Jesus Christ and in fellowship with the Holy Spirit. This is why we have the Academy and a social platform to facilitate, educating and uplifting Christians worldwide, through one another, turning more and more Christians into Christ.

To make this vision possible and sustainable, we need an ever increasing strong foundation of followers like you, who can join us on this Mission, as members participating in our goals. We need an ever increasing number of members supporting us in various ways; some through their talent, some through their prayers and some to help us pay our ongoing and increasing costs for this mission.

How You Can Support Our Mission

1) Mission Objective Number 1

TARGETS

"To have 500 active subscribed members."
Or subscriptions worth £5,000

Cost to achieve target – See mission objective no. 2

TO JOIN OUR COMMUNITY IS FREE. WE DO NOT CHARGE, EVEN THOUGH IT COSTS US MONEY BECAUSE JESUS SAID, "FREELY WE RECEIVE, FREELY WE GIVE."

Whilst joining is free, we do invite all members to consider giving a regular monthly subscription for one-off payments whenever they want or can.

This Mission objective is aimed at us being able to cover our ongoing costs, for example, if you were to choose to give us a small monthly or regular amount of £5, £10 or £20 or more pounds a month, you would not only be helping us to reach out to heal the sick, cast out devils and to proclaim the good news, you would also be helping us to develop disciples, empowering Christians to be a spiritual asset of power and authority as a Child of God for their family, their group, their local parish, community and more.

We need a minimum of 500 subscribed members paying a minimum of £10 per month to give us the monthly income of around £5,000 to cover our overheads, ongoing development costs and to provide a small provision for our volunteers who may be struggling financially and cannot pay for their internet connection or the tools they need to do their work for us effectively.

If anybody would like to contribute anything, please contact Marilyn in the Community on the website jesus4UsAll.com, or on WhatsApp on +44 7506 916762

IF YOU CANNOT AFFORD THIS, THEN YOU ARE WELCOME TO JOIN US FOR FREE BUT IF YOU CAN AFFORD TO GIVE US £10 or £20 TO HELP THIS MISSION THEN PLEASE CONSIDER BECOMING ONE OF OUR 500 FOUNDING SUBSCRIBING MEMBERS.

We're inviting you to become a paid subscriber to our website. Our goal is to reach 500 dedicated subscribers as soon as possible. If you believe in our mission and want to see faith-driven impact expand and want the satisfaction of knowing you are contributing then please subscribe today.

Your subscription will directly contribute towards:

- Help us cover our regular website servicing costs
- Help us improve the website
- Help us to continue to produce our full colour quarterly magazine
- Help us with our social platform running costs
- Help us with the Academy running costs
- Help us produce more free courses in the Academy
- Help us to develop a discipleship programme
- Help us to develop a healing and deliverance Ministry school
- Help us to develop more ministers
- Help us to develop inspiring sermons
- Help us to develop ongoing inspirational videos
- Help us to co-ordinate with parish healing development
- Help to develop prayer groups and prayer group leaders
- Help us to develop existing missions and groups
- Help us to collaborate with other missions
- Help us to develop evangelisation programmes
- Help us to develop street missions
- Help us to develop leaders who can run events for their local regional or national communities
- Help us to develop our volunteers into effective servants of this mission
- Help us to develop more prayer ministers
- Help us in any other way that the Lord calls us to in and through this mission
- Help us develop a mentoring programme

The Lord has given us a few slogans to help us realise our sense of purpose and mission under the banner of our website.

Our first slogan is:

"Jesus, where man and God become one."

In the Academy our slogan is:

"Today the pupil, tomorrow the teacher."

"Today the disciple, tomorrow the shepherd."

Many people doing a little bit each or contributing to having a high impact for many lives and for the glory of Jesus Christ.

Every subscriber brings us closer to our goal and empowers us to do more for the Kingdom. Join our growing community of supporters today!

Your support is vital to our growth and impact. You can contribute in two ways:

- One-off Donation – A single gift of any amount helps us immediately with operational costs and special projects.
- Regular Subscription – Become a consistent partner with a minimum contribution of £5 per month (please consider £10 or £20 if you can afford it as this would help our mission enormously).

REGISTER AND SUBSCRIBE NOW

This steady support allows us to plan for the future, expand our outreach, and continue to highlight inspiring stories and ministries and discipleship formation.

You do not need to be a member to make a one off donation or to give a recurring monthly donation.

2) Mission Objective Number 2 – Social Media Management

TARGETS

Related to Mission Objective No. 1

To drive up subscriptions up to 500 paying members amounting to at least £5,000 per month subscriptions

Estimated Cost to achieve target – £100 per month

Can you help pay towards this monthly cost?

Social media management is basically looking after our social media accounts such as Instagram, Tik Tok, FaceBook, Youtube, etc. It involves employing someone who is an expert at creating interest by drawing people to our website, hopefully inspiring them enough to want to join our community.

Volunteer job invitation – Can you help? Do you have experience?

We are reaching out to our Christian community for support, as we build our online presence to spread the Gospel. We urgently need a dedicated Christian social media manager, to help set up and manage platforms like Instagram, TikTok, and others.

This role involves creating engaging content, fostering community, and growing our reach. If you have a heart for ministry and expertise in social media, or if you're able to contribute financially towards the cost of hiring someone (£50-£150) per month, your support will be a true blessing. Your help will enable us to spread the good news effectively on a large scale.

Invitation to ALL members

If you are familiar with social media and are a regular user you can help us by spreading the message through your own personal social media profile by sharing our website and Youtube and elements of our content, the magazine, the prayer requests, the events, the posts, the sermons, the social community platform and the Academy.

Suggested plan – share 5 per 10 posts per week.

HELP US FIX OUR MOBILE MISSION MINIBUS (MMM)!

Our mission outreach is growing, and we urgently need a reliable vehicle to transport supplies, teams, and those we serve. We have a mini-bus that is a true asset, but it's currently sidelined due to extensive rust damage. To bring it back to a safe and legal standard, we need approximately £2,500 for repairs.

The rust is significant and requires professional attention to ensure the mini-bus is fit for the road and can safely support our essential work. This isn't just about cosmetic fixes, it's about structural integrity and the safety of everyone who will ride in it.

We are reaching out to our compassionate community to ask for your generous donations. Every contribution, no matter the size, will help us get this minibus back on the road and actively serve the Kingdom. Please prayerfully consider supporting us in this crucial need.

We need your help!
Please give us a donation.

Spiro's Compelling Book Reveals the 12 Steps to the Throne of Grace

We have exciting news about our beloved book, "Coming Boldly to the Throne of Grace"! We've reached the end of our original print run, but rather than just reprinting, we're giving it a significant update.

What's New?

The updated edition will feature an additional 100 pages of rich content, offering even more encouragement and depth to your walk with God. It will also boast a fresh, inspiring new cover!

Global Reach: Translation & Distribution

Our vision is to share this message of grace with a wider, global audience. To do this, we're seeking support to translate the book into other languages. If you speak a language fluently and would like to help translating Spiro's book into your language, get in touch with us.

Equally if you are able to help with set up costs please reach out to us.

Partner with Us: Become a (National) Distributor/Stockist

As we prepare for the new edition, we're also building our network of partners.

Would you be interested in becoming a distributor of "our books which we sell in our online shop?"

This is a wonderful opportunity to help us reach more people globally.

If you're interested in contributing to translations or becoming a distributor, please contact us!

JESUS4USALL.COM SUPPORTS... Maria, Shan and Amjad

This is a cause Jesus4UsAll.com is supporting. Maria, Shan and Amjad are Volunteers in our Mission, even though they have their own Mission in Pakistan as well. We are working together. Their mission is called Lead in Christ Ministry.

They minister to different areas of Pakistan, where there are only a few followers of Jesus Christ. Recently, they taught people who work in brick factories, sharing the Gospel with them, and helping them with food, medical supplies and housing. Many of the people they meet are uneducated, illiterate; so need recorded bibles to hear the Word of God. Significant flooding has worsened an already devastating situation; with loss of homes, cultivation, cattle, leaving them no food, nowhere to sleep, and no protection.

ITALIAN TEENAGER CARLO ACUTIS WILL BECOME THE FIRST MILLENNIAL AND DIGITAL SAINT ON 7 SEPTEMBER 2025

1991 Carlo was born on 3rd May at the Portland Clinic, London. On 18th May he received the Sacrament of Baptism in the Church of Our Lady of Dolours, London. On 8th September, Carlo returned to Milan with his parents, who had been in London for work.

1995 Carlo began school at Parco Pagani, the public nursery near his home in Milan.

1997 He entered elementary school at the San Carlo Institute, but for practical reasons, Carlo soon transferred to the Tommaso Institute run by the Sisters of Saint Marcellina, where he completed his primary and middle school years.

1998 On 16th June, having just turned seven, Carlo received his first holy communion at the Convent of the Romite Sisters of Saint Ambrose in Perego.

2003 On 24th May he received the Sacrament of Confirmation in his parish church, Santa Maria Segreta.

2005 In September Carlo began his studies at the Leo XIII Institute, a secondary school run by the Jesuits.

2006 On 8th October, Carlo suddenly fell ill, he was diagnosed with M3 acute leukaemia. Four days later, strengthened by the sacraments, he died in hospital in Milan and was then buried in Piedmont.

2007 In January, in accordance with Carlo's request, his body was transferred to a cemetery in Assisi.

2012 On 12th October, the cause for Carlo's canonisation was opened and he became a Servant of God.

2013 On 13th May, the Holy See's Nihil Obstat approved Carlo's cause for beatification and canonisation.

2016 Just ten years after his death, on 24th November, the diocesan phase of the cause for beatification and canonisation of Servant of God Carlo Acutis was concluded and sent to Rome.

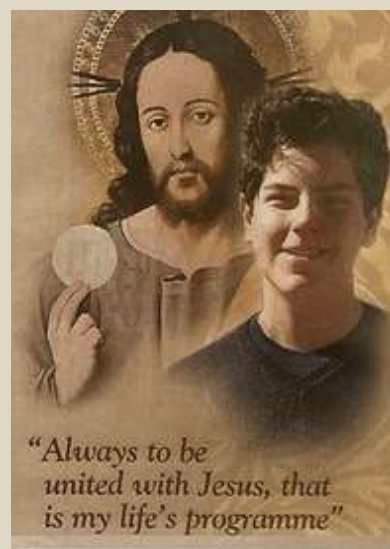

2018 On 5th July, Carlo was declared venerable by Pope Francis.

2019 On 23rd January, Carlo's body was exhumed and he was laid to rest in the Shrine of Renunciation in Assisi.

2020 On 10th October, Carlo Acutis was beatified in Assisi.

Born in London, England, on 3 May 1991 to Italian parents, Carlo was baptised in the Church of Our Lady of Dolours, Fulham, South West London. (Who have provided the info and images for this article.)

BLESSED CARLO ACUTIS

3 MAY 1991 - 12 OCTOBER 2006

"To always be close to Jesus, that's my life plan."

With these few words Carlo Acutis, the boy who died of leukaemia, outlined the distinguishing feature of his brief existence: to live with Jesus, for Jesus, and in Jesus.

"I'm happy to die because I've lived my life without wasting even a minute of it doing things that wouldn't have pleased God."

Carlo also asks the same thing of us: to emulate the Gospel with our life, so that we can be a beacon lighting the way for others.

Carlo's Way to Sanctity

1. Frequent Reception of the Eucharist

The Eucharist is my highway to heaven!

2. Eucharistic Adoration

'If we go out in the sun, we get a suntan.. but when we get in front of Jesus in the Eucharist, we become saints.'

3. Spiritual Guide and Regular Confession

'Why do people worry so much about the beauty of their own body and not about the beauty of their soul?'

4. Devotion to Our Blessed Mother and the Saints

'The Rosary is the shortest ladder to heaven.'

5. Charity

'A life will be really beautiful if we come to love God above all things and our neighbour as ourselves.'

BLESSED CARLOS ACUTIS
(London, 3 May 1991 - Milan, 11 October 2006)

"My life plan is to always be connected to Jesus". With these few words, Carlo Acutis, who died at 18, indicated what he was only fifteen years old and that he would be the Servant of God. He was a young man, full of faith and love, who lived his life in the service of God and his fellow human beings.

"To quote Carlo's own words: 'Our destination must be what is infinite, not what is finite. Infinity is our home. We have been created in Heaven since time immemorial'".

The idea that "All are here with their own originality, but many die as phantoms".

Carlo lived in a very difficult time in his life. He was a young man, full of faith and love, who lived his life in the service of God and his fellow human beings. He was a young man, full of faith and love, who lived his life in the service of God and his fellow human beings.

BLESSED ANNE CATHERINE EMMERICH
LITHUANIAN, 1774-1821

Anne Catherine Emmerich was forced to abandon the monastery in which she lived because it was being appropriated by the government. In that period, her health declined and the mystical experiences increased: she received the stigmata and had numerous visions. One of these allowed the finding of the house of Our Lady in Ephesus. In fact, according to antique tradition, it seems that Mary, still together with John the Apostle, in this city. The miraculous aspect of the life of Anne Catherine is that for years she fed only on the Eucharist.

ST. MARY OF EGYPT
LITHUANIAN, 1774-1821

This Eucharistic miracle is related to the life of St. Mary of Egypt, who lived in the desert for 47 years. The account of her life was written by the Bishop of Jerusalem in the 7th century. St. Mary is said to have walked on the Jordan River to reach the apostolic land and receive Communion from the Monk Zosimus.

SANTAREM
PORTUGAL, 1374

The Eucharistic miracle of Santarém, together with that of Lanciano, is considered among the most important Eucharistic miracles. Numerous studies and canonical analyses were carried out on the relics. The Host changed into bleeding flesh and blood, showed out of the Blessed Sacrament. Both relics are preserved to this day in the Church of St. Stephen in Santarém.

In the Cathedral of Brussels, there are many artistic treasures from a Eucharistic miracle verified in 1370. Documents and Hosts and relics are there with letters at a way of showing the miracle. From these particles came a flow of living blood. This miracle was celebrated up until some decades ago. There are many reliquaries of this miracle that were used to contain the miraculous Hosts of the miracle of the Blessed Sacrament. They have been kept to this day in the museum of the cathedral in an ancient chapel of the Blessed Sacrament. There are tapestries of the 18th century which represent the miraculous event.

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA
ITALY, 1380

Jesus appeared to St. Catherine of Siena to assure her that a great flame does not diminish, even if it is used to light many candles. Such is the flame of the Holy Eucharist, because it does not weaken while confining the faithful who come with their strong or weak faith. The stronger and weaker charity of each of the faithful is symbolic only by the flame's dimension of the candles.

UPCOMING CANONISATIONS ON SUNDAY 7 SEPTEMBER 2025

Pope Leo XIV's first saints
Congratulations to Blessed Carlo Acutis and Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, as they are scheduled to be canonised by Pope Leo XIV on Sunday, 7 September, 2025, during the Vatican's Jubilee Year of Hope. This significant event marks a key moment in the Church's history as it will be one of the first major acts of the new pontiff and will bring holiness to a new generation, highlighting that holiness is possible for young people in any era and vocation.

PAYING ATTENTION TO THE UPCOMING JEWISH FEASTS

Jewish New Year starts with the Feast of Trumpets

The Feast of Trumpets is a warning from God to get right with him and with one another. To follow his ways. This starts on what is known as the Feast of Trumpets (Rosh Hashanah) and begins at sunset Monday 22 September 2025 and ends on Wednesday 24 September. We then have a 10-day period to get right with God. This is then followed by the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) 10 days later, which starts on Thursday 1 October and ends at sunset 2 October 2025.

While as Christians we have no obligation to follow these feasts, they are the two feasts yet to be fulfilled in the Christian faith, but will be fulfilled when Jesus returns in the Second Coming, which is not long now. We recommend:

1. self examination of conscience
2. confession
3. make sure you forgive everyone and that you do not judge anyone or harbour any resentment
4. consecrate yourself to God and consciously make a firm purpose of amendment and to follow God's will
5. serve God. Ask him where he wants you to serve. Online or offline, etc, or which ministry you can be part of or support. etc

BLESSED CARLO ACUTIS'S NEW BRONZE STATUE UNVEILED IN ASSISI, ITALY

August 2025

A new bronze statue of Blessed Carlo Acutis has been unveiled in Assisi, sending a powerful message that the Catholic Church is young, vibrant and deeply relevant today.

The 11-foot sculpture, created by Canadian artist Timothy Schmalz, now stands outside the Shrine of the Renunciation at the Church of St Mary Major, where the 15-year-old "millennial saint" is buried.

Entitled St Carlo at the Cross, it depicts Blessed Acutis kneeling beside Christ crucified, holding a laptop that displays a chalice and paten – a nod to the teen's love of technology and his online catalogue of Eucharistic miracles.

Schmalz said the work links Christ's cross, Blessed Acutis and modern tech. These "three essential elements", he said, "celebrate the story of this modern saint."

Lola Gomez,
Catholic News Service

The 11-ft statue is installed in the garden of the Church of Santa Maria Maggiore at the Santuario della Spogliazione ("Shrine of the Renunciation"), the same place where St Francis of Assisi gave up his worldly possessions to follow Christ

OCTOBER - DEDICATED TO THE HOLY ROSARY

Make a commitment today and pray the rosary daily

"Some people are so foolish that they think they can go through life without the help of the Blessed Mother. Love the Madonna and pray the Rosary, because her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today. All graces given by God pass through the Blessed Mother."

"Go to the Madonna. Love her! Always say the Rosary. Say it well. Say it as often as you can! Be souls of prayer. Never tire of praying, it is what is essential. Prayer shakes the Heart of God, it obtains necessary graces!" St. Padre Pio

Prayer of St Francis of Assisi

Feast Day: 4 October

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is error, the truth;
where there is doubt, the faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;

to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Amen

FUSION OF THE SOUL IN THE WILL OF GOD AND IN THE HOLY HUMANITY OF JESUS

via Servant of God Luisa Piccarreta

I thank you God for having created me, redeemed me, and kept me in being. I thank you because you keep and will keep the entire universe in being with your constant creative act.

I ask your forgiveness for all the acts I have done outside of your will. Redo every act of mine in your will.

Come Divine Will. Jesus I love you in your Will.

Jesus, fuse in me and I fuse in You.

Jesus, let's do everything together, let's fuse each other in the Will, in desires and in love, to be able to fuse in desires, in the will, in the love of all creatures, so that they all remain renewed in your Will; and then I fuse all my little particles into yours to be able to fuse into all the particles of creatures, to give you for all, that love, that glory and that satisfaction that everyone denies You;

and I ask you to seal this act of mine, O Jesus, with your blessing for me and for everyone.

My life, Jesus, I fuse everything in your Holy Humanity and Divinity, part by part, because your Humanity has the Divine Will as its center of life and whoever lives in It lives in this center spreading light everywhere and to everyone.

I therefore fuse, my Jesus, my intelligence in your Intelligence, my memory in your Memory,

my will in the Divine Will.

I fuse my gaze in your gaze,

my smell in yours, O Jesus,

my voice in your voice,

my hearing in yours.

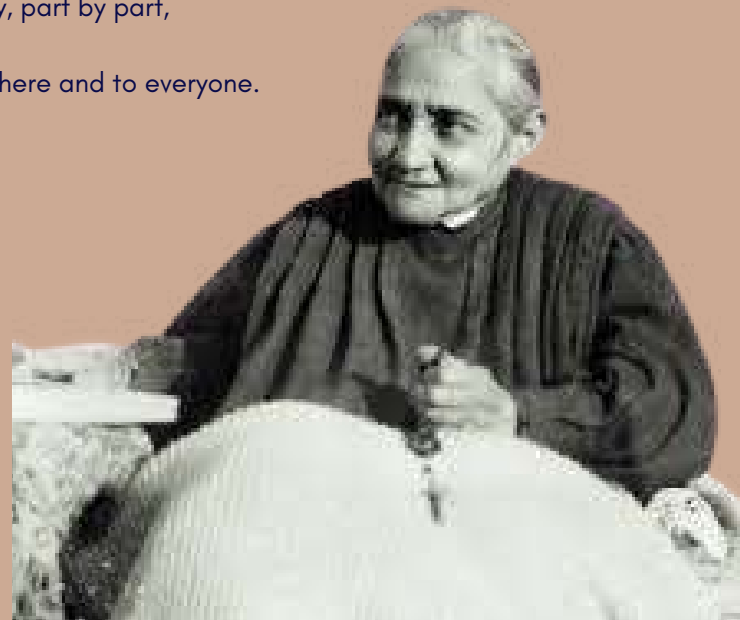

I fuse my hands and my works in your hands and your works;

my heartbeat and breath in your heartbeat and breath and the circulation of my blood in the circulation of your Blood, oh my beloved Jesus.

Come Divine Will with the acts that Jesus and Mother Mary had redone for me so that I can live their acts in me today.

Thank You

A big thank you to everyone who has helped and continues to help our Jesus4UsAll.com mission.

Without God and without you, this would be impossible. We thank God for each and every one of you:

- our members
- our volunteers
- those who pray for us
- those who support us financially
- and all our associates

We really do appreciate you, and we keep you all in our prayers.

Our Prayer for You

May Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, shine His Divine light on you and your families, preserving and protecting you, healing and blessing you in every way and in every area of your lives. May all the promises and blessings of Our Lord Jesus Christ be upon you and everything you do, that you may flourish and reap a harvest of joy and gladness because of your kindness and generosity, we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ and in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

If you have any particular prayer request, post it here and we will pray for you.

NOVEMBER - DEDICATED TO THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the Universal Church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

Our Lord told the 13th-century German nun St Gertrude the Great that each time she sincerely recited this prayer, it would greatly ease the suffering of those holy souls in purgatory.

Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Are you skilled in social media, Canva, WordPress, marketing, journalism, fundraising, or creativity of any kind? Or maybe you're a prayer warrior with a heart for intercession, or someone who simply loves Jesus and longs to share His light and love?
Whether you're a digital pro or someone with a gift for encouragement, your talents matter — and they can be used to spread the Good News in powerful ways, that go way beyond traditional evangelising.

It's about carrying the love of Jesus into every space you're in. Online. Offline. Everywhere. Sound like you? Interested in using your gifts for something that lasts? We'd love you to consider partnering with Jesus4UsAll — and using your God-given skills and talents to help bring His hope to others. Let's carry His light together.

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies — in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ." (1 Peter 4:10-11) To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

My experience as a volunteer

By Janka Whitlock

On the feast day of Our Lady of Fatima, 13 May 2022, when Jesus healed me from 13 months of Long Covid, and I experienced an encounter with Jesus as Spiro led me through prayers, I knew I was meant to be in the Jesus4usall.com ministry. I was drawn to help Spiro with moving and updating the website and, later on, when more Volunteers joined, we formed 'a family'. We have all been through so many trials, sufferings; people we thought were our friends abandoned us, rejected us, but still we focus on the Lord. He is slowly purifying us, healing our weaknesses and wounds. Trials and hardships are often the best school for preparing us to fulfill our mission in life, because our destiny is the eternal life with Jesus.

I have grown so much in these past three years and three months. I am not the same person. I have seen so many miracles, so many people being healed of anything and everything. I have learned that Jesus truly is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. I have learned about forgiveness, complete forgiveness. For my Long Covid healing, I was given the Scripture of Mark 11:22-26: 'Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. Truly I tell you, if you say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and if you do not doubt in your heart, but believe that what you say will come to pass, it will be done for you. So I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses. But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your trespasses.' This Scripture is now my daily prayer; it is the true teaching of Our Heavenly Father, taught through our ministry. Our ministry's main gifts are the power gifts of the Holy Spirit - Faith, Healing and Miracles, and also Deliverance. Being a Volunteer means we are all under the canopy of Spiro and we are all being prepared and strengthened by his ministry. We are Jesus' donkeys. I am a core member, and by helping and participating in the ministry, I am now seeing and experiencing miracles in my daily life. People come to me who need prayer, and when I guide them in prayer, they are healed, or experience the Holy Spirit. I am sharing this experience because I want to encourage others to join our ministry; it is life-changing. By perseverance, humility and gazing at Jesus, by His grace, He is preparing his soldiers for real evangelisation, through faith, healing and miracles. It is no longer I, but Christ who lives in me ❤️🔥🙌🙏
