RE: The status of Mr Spiro Sueref

To whom it may concern:

I am the priest-member of the Diocesan Service of Communion (DSC) for Catholic Charismatic Renewal, in the Archdiocese of Cardiff-Menevia.

Under a process put in place by Pope Francis a few years ago, every diocese was asked to form a "Diocesan Service of Communion" to be a liaison between charismatic prayer groups and individuals, and the diocese itself. This means the DSC is technically not a committee of the diocese, but rather an external committee which liaises with it. I serve on this committee with the explicit permission of my Archbishop, Mark O'Toole, as an official representative of the Archdiocese.

As the current priest-member of the DSC I can affirm to enquirers that Mr Spiro Sueref of Cardiff, who runs the website and associated ministries Jesus4UsAll.com, is a Roman Catholic in good standing and has been exercising a ministry in South Wales for the last 20 years. His in-person events take place at St Peter's Church, Roath, in Cardiff. I have had sight of a document from the parish priest there, issued in July 2026, affirming that Spiro continues to exercise a fruitful ministry there with his permission.

Further, having recently examined some of Mr Sueref's online activities, I can affirm that he exercises ministry responsibly, encouraging people who have experienced some measure of healing to continue taking prescribed medication until their doctor suggests otherwise.

This letter is not a specific endorsement of all the content of Jesus4UsAll.com since it is not the role of the DSC to audit such material, but the lack of endorsement is a neutral statement, not a negative statement, since we have simply not reviewed the material in detail. Mr Sueref is entitled to a presumption that he is ministering within the Catholic Faith unless evidence is presented to the contrary.

If you should require further affirmation of Mr Sueref's credentials, you could contact Rev Chris Fuse, of St Peter's Church, Roath, Cardiff, where Mr Sueref's in person activities take place.

Yours Sincerely

Rev Dr Gareth Leyshon
